Introduction:

This legendary and challenging trek takes you into one of the most beautiful and unspoiled trekking areas in the entire Himalaya as you travel into the remote and seldom visited region of Lunana, a land abounding in ancient myth and local folklore. During your journey you'll pass some of the last virgin peaks of the Himalayas and you'll encounter a wide variety of trekking conditions from easy quiet trails through picturesque farmland and forest up to alpine pastureland, over high Himalayan passes and following the trail close to the huge snow, ice and rock faces of mountains where most of the peaks towering to the north remain unnamed and unclimbed. Very few foreigners have visited this beautiful remote area where the main inhabitants remain the Blue Sheep, Takin and Snow Leopard. You'll journey past Bhutan's second highest peak, Mt Chomolhari and on to Base Camp. Relax or indulge in a spot of fishing at Jangothang sky blue lake. You'll visit traditional villages and ancient monasteries and experience the warm welcome of local people. You'll cross remote high mountain passes and follow ancient trade routes. In the capital, Thimphu, you'll visit an indigenous hospital where traditional Bhutanese methods are practiced and you'll see treasure troves of ancient manuscripts and artwork at the National Library and Royal Goldsmith's Workshop. During your journey you'll travel through stunning pristine landscapes with awesome Himalayan views on what is a remarkable, very special and truly legendary trek.

Day 01: Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. After time to get refreshed, rest and have lunch, enjoy a group welcome dinner later this evening at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. We begin with a visit to Durbar Square at the heart of Old Kathmandu and site of the ancient palace complex, the Living Goddess Kumari temple and surrounding temples. From here we'll visit Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. Returning to Kathmandu, this evening is free for you to rest, explore and enjoy the hotel and surrounds.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Paro

please note flights to Paro from Kathmandu currently operate only on certain days of the week. Flight schedules are subject to change & a degree of flexibility is required. Please contact us for details and to discuss your dates of travel

After breakfast this morning, it's time to check out of the hotel and transfer to the International airport for the scenic flight to Paro in Bhutan. Enjoy great views of Mt Everest, Kanchenjunga, Chomolhari, Tsrimgang and Jichu Drake during your flight. Arriving in Paro, we'll be met by our local Bhutanese representatives and assisted with the transfer and check in to our hotel in Paro. The remainder of today is free to relax and enjoy your peaceful surroundings and the cool fresh air of Bhutan.

Day 04: Taktsang Monastery (Tiger's Nest)

As part of our acclimatisation process, we'll take a short hike (2-3 hours) to famous Taktsang Monastery today, also known as Tiger's Nest, up to an altitude of 3000m and overlooking the Paro valley. Horses can also be arranged for the journey uphill for a small extra payment. The monastery clings to a huge granite cliff 800m above the Paro valley. After enjoying our lunch at the monastery cafeteria we'll stroll down and take a short drive back to Paro and enjoy an evening to relax and explore the local area.

Day 05: Drukgyal Dzong (2580m)

After breakfast today, our trek begins from Drukgyal Dzong and on to Shana. We'll spend 5-6 hours walking in total to cover the 16km distance, with stops for lunch and breaks and time to enjoy the wonderful scenery. The trail starts with a short downhill on the wide trail before gently climbing through rice terraces and later an area of apple orchards and woodland. The valley later begins to widen and just below Sharma Zampa there are good places to camp in the meadows amongst the surrounding trees. We'll relax this evening in our first tented camp.

Day 06: Shana to Soi Thangthangka (3750m)

We'll follow the Pa Chhu River today and follow the trail as it ascends and descends through forests of pine, oak and spruce. Our path crosses the river and then climbs through rhododendron forests before another river bridge crossing before we reach our campsite. Today, we'll cover about 24km with around 8-9 hours walking through picturesque landscape with time for breaks and lunch en route. This evening we'll rest and relax at camp.

Day 07: Jangothang (4040m)

Our trek continues today to Jangothang beginning with a short ascend before we follow the river above the tree line from where we'll have great views of the surrounding peaks. We'll follow the trail into the Jangothang valley where we'll spend the evening at our high altitude (4050m) tented camp. Today is a around 7 hours walking and about 19km. From camp we'll have striking views of Mt Chomolhari and Jichu Drake.

Day 08: Jangothang

Today is a full day of rest and acclimatization at Jangothang. After breakfast this morning there are various options including a spot of fishing in the sky blue lake, an excursion around the local area or simply relax back at camp.

Day 09: Lingshi (4000m)

It's time to move on today and our trek takes us to Lingshi, following the river before crossing over as the trail ascends up to the mountain ridge. From here we'll have great views of Chomolhari, Jichu Drake and Tsrin Khang. The trail becomes more flat before the climb to the high Nyele La pass at around 4700m. From here it's a gradual and pleasant descent to Lingshi where we'll camp tonight. It's around 18km which should take us about 7-8 hours walking today.

Day 10: Chebisa (3860m)

We'll journey on to Chebisa today, past Lingshi Dzong and through a number of traditional villages and past yak herders' camps. It's approximately 5-6 hours pleasant walk along winding trails and over a distance of around 14km. We'll spend this evening and tonight resting and relaxing in our tented camp.

Day 11: Shomuthang (4250m)

This morning we'll head towards Shomuthang, about 16 km which should take us around 7 hours walking. We start with a steep ascent to Gomby La pass (4450m) before a nice long descent to the river stream before the trail starts to climb again over a small ridge and through the forest. It's a long climb over the ridge before the trail descends into the valley and into deep forests of fir and birch. After lunch we'll follow the trail high above the valley floor and through some high yak pastures to reach our campsite where we'll relax tonight.

Day 12: Robluthang (4200m)

Robluthang is about 18kms away and the trek today takes about 8-9 hours walking. The trail begins with a climb up to Jari La pass (4700m). From here we'll descend into the Tasharijathang Valley and the area where, in summer, the rare Himalayan Takin resides. Continuing onwards we'll follow the trail across the river stream to reach our high altitude tented camp tonight.

Day 13: Lingmithang (4140m)

We'll continue on to Lingmithang today, about 8 hours walking to cover 19km distance. This is a long and challenging day as we'll be crossing the highest and last pass on the trek, the Shinje La at 4950m. We might be lucky and able to spot Blue Sheep on the nearby slopes. From the pass it's a rough and rocky trail that descends along the moraine into another glacial valley with the final section of the trail more enjoyable and with great views of Mt Gangchey Ta. We'll spend tonight at our camp in a nearby meadow at around 4100m.

Day 14: Laya (3800m)

Our trek continues to Laya today, about 13 km away and only a 5 hour walk before reaching our tented camp for the evening. It's a pleasant and easy walk passing through a damp forest rich with plant and birdlife and with great surrounding views from the trail before we reach beautiful Laya village, the second highest settlement in Bhutan.

Day 15: Laya

Today is a full day to rest at Laya with an optional excursion to the village or just a chance to relax and maybe explore the surrounding area. Travelling into the village we'll have the chance to meet some local people and experience some Bhutanese hospitality over a cup of tea. This is a very interesting village with a unique form of dress including the conical bamboo hats and turquoise and silver jewellery worn by local women. This evening we can relax at camp or may be able to visit the village for some local singing and dancing and (for those with the very acquired taste) a drink of the local brew.

Day 16: Roduphu (4350m)

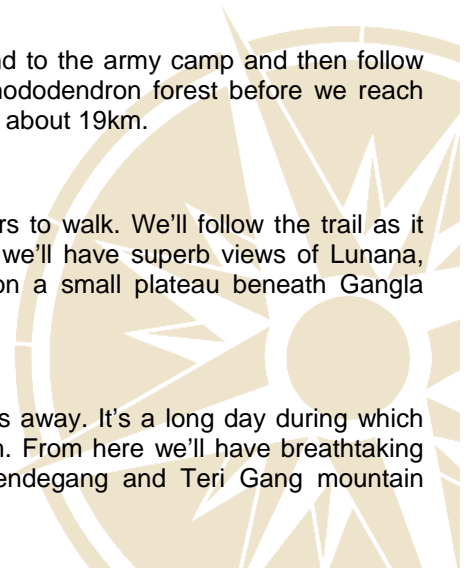

We'll continue today, this time heading for Roduphu. We'll descend to the army camp and then follow the river until Roduphu from where the trail climbs up through rhododendron forest before we reach camp. The walk should take us around 8-9 hours over a distance of about 19km.

Day 17: Narithang (4250m)

Narithang is about 16km from Roduphu and takes about 6-7 hours to walk. We'll follow the trail as it climbs to the Tsimo La at 4700m. From the summit of the pass we'll have superb views of Lunana, Chomolhari and Jichu Drake before we descend to our camp on a small plateau beneath Gangla Karchung peak.

Day 18: Tarina (3900m)

We'll walk for about 7-8 hours today to reach Tarina, about 17kms away. It's a long day during which we'll cross the high Kangla Karchula pass at an altitude of 5100m. From here we'll have breathtaking views of the surrounding peaks including the Masanggang, Tsendegang and Teri Gang mountain ranges as we make the long descent into Tarina valley and the glacial lakes. We'll spend tonight in our tented camp at the lower altitude of 3900m.

Day 19: Woche (3800m)

From Tarina we'll head to Woche, 15km away and about 6-7 hours walking. The trail leads through conifer forests along the upper ridges of the Pho Chhu River before climbing another ridge and descending to the village of Woche where we'll camp tonight.

Day 20: Lhedi (3650m)

The walk to Lhedi will take around 7-8 hours to cover about 17km. We'll follow the trail through forest of fir, juniper and rhododendron before climbing to the high Keche La pass at an altitude of 4500m and with great surrounding views. From here we'll descend to the river and through Lhedi village where we'll camp and relax this evening.

Day 21: Tanza (4000m)

We'll continue the trek today and follow the riverside before the gradual ascent to Choejong village and over the bridge to reach Tanza village that sits below the 7100m snow capped peak of Table Mountain (know locally as Zonggophu Gang). It'll take us a good 7-8 hours walking over 18km before we rest at our camp in Tanza.

Day 22: Tschochena (4100m)

Tschochena is about 18 kms away, around 7-8 hours walking beginning with the climb up to cross Jazela pass at an altitude of 4900m before the trail descends and we reach camp for a hot drink and evening of rest and relaxation.

Day 23: Jichu Dramo (4400m)

Jichu Dramo is a 6-7 hour walk and about 14km from Tschochena. We'll follow the trail as it ascends and descends through the snow capped peaks before climbing to Loju La pass at 4900m. From here we'll descend to our camp at a slightly lower altitude than the pass.

Day 24: Chukarpo (4200m)

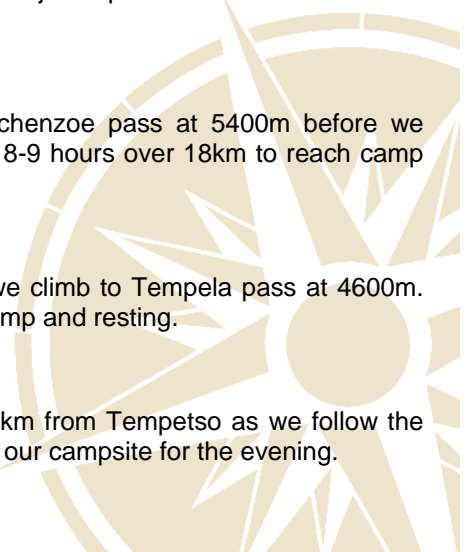

Starting from Jichu Dramo we'll follow the trail up to cross Rinchenzoe pass at 5400m before we descend all the way to Chukarpo. The journey will take us around 8-9 hours over 18km to reach camp for the night.

Day 25: Tempetso (3900m)

This morning the trail begins downhill until Um Tsho lake before we climb to Tempela pass at 4600m. We'll travel around 19km today, about 8-9 hours before reaching camp and resting.

Day 26: Marothang (3400m)

It'll take us about 6-7 hours to reach Marothang today, around 15km from Tempetso as we follow the trail downhill through rhododendron forest and yak pasture to reach our campsite for the evening.

Day 27: Nikachu (2600m)

Today we'll reach Nikachu, about 22 km from Marothang and around 7-8 hours walking. This is the final day of the trek and we'll pass through bamboo forests and open fields as we follow the river to Sephu village and the Nikachu Bridge. We'll either camp here tonight or drive onwards to Wangduephodrang to check in at our hotel and relax and celebrate our journey.

Day 28: Thimphu (2300m)

An early morning drive (around 5 hours) takes us to the capital, Thimphu. En route we'll stop to visit the old capital of Punakha Dzong, built in the 17th century and still the winter residence of the monks as well as the home of many sacred and historic artifacts and religious treasures. Arriving in Thimphu we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of today at leisure.

Day 29: Thimphu

There's a lot to see in Thimphu so we'll spend today seeing the highlights. This morning we'll have the chance to visit an indigenous hospital where traditional methods are still practiced. We'll also visit a traditional painting school, the National Library which is a treasure trove of priceless Buddhist manuscripts and the Royal Goldsmith's workshop. Before lunch we'll also take time to visit a local weaving centre and a centre for Bhutanese paper making. In the afternoon we'll visit the memorial chorten dedicated to the late King, 15th Century Changangkha Lhakhang as well as Drukthop Nunnery and Tashichhodzong, centre of government and religion in Bhutan. After our sightseeing enjoy the short scenic drive to Paro (around 2 hours). Arriving in Paro we'll check in to our hotel and relax for the night.

Day 30: Paro to Kathmandu

please note flights from Paro to Kathmandu currently operate only on certain days of the week. Flight schedules are subject to change & a degree of flexibility is required. Please contact us for details and to discuss your dates of travel

After breakfast today it's time to transfer to the airport in Paro for our return flight to Kathmandu. Upon arrival in Kathmandu we'll be met by our local representatives for the transfer and check in to the hotel. The remainder of today is at leisure.

Day 31: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll take a short drive to the City of Devotees (Bhaktapur) this morning. This traditional and traffic free town is the third biggest in the Valley. Your guided tour takes you to explore the medieval like squares, courtyards and temples of this vibrant town. After a stop for lunch at a restaurant in Bhaktapur it's time to drive back to Kathmandu. The rest of the afternoon is free for you to explore the streets of Kathmandu, perhaps catch up on some last minute shopping or simply relax with a coffee or glass of wine and watch life go by, Kathmandu style.

Day 32: Departure

Today is free to relax until departure or to commence any additional trips or activities you may have booked. If departing, you'll be transferred to the International Airport in time for your return flight home.

Extending your holiday

There are many choices and options if you'd like to extend your holiday before or after your main booking. Here are just a few suggestions of extensions available for this trip:

- Take a jungle safari by charter elephant to spot rare species including the Royal Bengal Tiger in the Chitwan National Park
- Enjoy the adrenaline rush of white water rafting in Nepal
- Relax by the lakeside in Pokhara, Nepal
- See the wonder of the Taj Mahal and enjoy relaxed sightseeing around Delhi
- Visit the Roof of the World on a short cultural tour of Tibet
- Charter a private helicopter to retrace part of Sir Edmund Hillary's route to Everest

Please contact our UK office if you'd like to extend your stay by booking one of the above options, if you would like ideas or advice on how best to spend your time and budget or if you would like help with arranging any special celebrations during your trip.

Useful Information

The following information is aimed at helping you to decide whether this trip is right for you. Additional information can be found on our website and in our brochure. If you have any questions or would like advice on any aspect of this trip please contact us and we'll be happy to go through everything with you.

Day to Day Itinerary

It must be realized that with adventure travel changes to an itinerary may occur, for example due to unexpected weather conditions. The day to day itinerary is provided as a general guideline and is intended to give you a general sense of what to expect, including places visited and activities during the trip to help with your decision regards which trip is the best one for you. Activities and timings may vary slightly from those outlined Your guide will make any changes necessary and all arrangements during the trip, including explaining reasons for any changes to the itinerary that may occur.

Trip Duration and Grading

This trip is 32 days with Day 1 beginning in Kathmandu and ending with departure from Kathmandu on Day 32. The trip has been graded strenuous, due to the high elevations and the amount of walking each day (up to 9 hours on some days on steep and challenging trails). A very good level of fitness and walking or trekking experience will be required for the trip and it is advised to prepare in terms of fitness at least several months in advance. If you are unsure this trip is suitable for you please contact our office to discuss. The trek will travel through beautiful remote areas of Bhutan including crossing a number of high Himalayan passes on what some call the most difficult and challenging trek in the world as well as an amazing journey.

Group Size

The maximum number of persons on this trip will be 12 and the minimum number 02 persons. We guarantee to run this trip with a minimum of 2 persons and based on your preferred dates of travel within the best times to visit this region in Spring and Autumn. By keeping group sizes small it means we can provide a more personal service to you.

Local Representatives and Guides

You will be met at the airport on arrival by our local representatives who will always be available to help with your arrival, departure and any queries or requirements during your trip. The group will be accompanied by a local English speaking guide throughout the trip. Once you have confirmed your booking we will send you details of how you will be met on arrival and you will meet your guide just after you arrive.

Accommodation

During this trip you will spend 4 nights at a luxury (four or five star) hotel in Kathmandu (2 nights at the start of your trip and 2 nights before departure). In Bhutan you'll spend 4 nights at a good quality A category hotel or lodge and 23 nights at tented camp during the days on trek, as per the itinerary.

All accommodation is based on double or twin share (twin share on trek). If you are traveling on your own and are happy to share with someone, we will arrange for you to share a room with someone of the same sex, at no extra charge. If you request a single room the single room supplement charge for this trip will apply. It is usually possible to arrange single room accommodation but please contact our office to confirm this.

Meals

All meals on full board basis during the part of the trip in Bhutan are included in the price, as per the government regulations for all travel to Bhutan. During the days spent in Kathmandu half board basis is included. This is to allow you the opportunity and freedom to try out some of the many wonderful eating places, particularly in Kathmandu. Snacks, bottled drinks including mineral water and alcohol are not included in the price.

Flight Inclusive Price and International Flights

The flight inclusive price is based on best available price (at the time of producing our current brochure) of economy return flights from the UK added to the 'land only' price. Flight prices are subject to change and do vary throughout the year. We use a variety of airlines and scheduled flights on our trips including British Airways, Air India, Gulf Air, Qatar Air etc. Our ATOL licence is T7199 and we work with other ATOL holders to issue flight tickets. For exact air fares and flight classes available at the time you wish to travel please contact us.

Land Only Option

Our trips are based on 'land only' as well as flight inclusive options to allow you the flexibility to choose to make your own arrangements for flights or perhaps to arrive a few days earlier or leave a few days later than the trip or to join the trip from anywhere in the world. If you choose the land only option we will provide full details of how and when to meet the rest of your group, details of your hotel and local contacts upon confirmation of your booking. All accommodation during your trip is included in the price although additional days before or after the start and end dates of your trip are not included. We are happy to book additional accommodation or optional activities, based on your requirements and budget, on request.

Please note that whilst at all times we aim to run our trip even with just a few persons, on some of the longer treks or trips, should the group size be less than our minimum operating level we may cancel the trip up to 6 weeks before departure. In the rare event that this happens, we will offer alternative dates or trips or refunds as appropriate and agreed with you. If you are arranging your own flights and accommodation prior to the start date of a group trip we recommend that you book fully flexible and refundable accommodation and transport if booking more than 6 weeks in advance, as should we need to cancel the trip compensation will not be paid for any arrangements that have been made independently.

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and its' a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Between October and November are some of the best times to visit Bhutan, particularly from late September to the end of November which are ideal for trekking and travel in general with warm days and clear skies. In spring the rhododendrons are wonderful as they colour the mountain sides throughout the Kingdom and the days are warm but nights are still cold. It can be extremely wet with the monsoon season in June to August.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for the evenings and in spring and winter. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

Complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift. In the past, gifts have included items such as trek bags and t-shirts and vary each season, and we aim to provide useful gifts which can be used and enjoyed during your trip with us and afterwards. For clients living outside the UK will provide a complimentary gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (eg spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$25 per person for a visa valid for up to 15 days stay in Nepal or US$40 for a visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry which you will also need as you will leave then re-enter Nepal after your time in Bhutan. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

To enter Bhutan you will need a separate visa valid for Bhutan. No foreign mission grants visas to enter Bhutan. Through our local representatives in Nepal we will make arrangements for your Bhutanese visa and entry requirements and may ask you to provide information relating to this up to 3 weeks or more in advance of travel. Your visa will be stamped on arrival in Bhutan and cleared in advance. The (current) visa fee of US$20 is payable on arrival at Paro airport. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the UK Department of Health leaflet Advice on Health for Travellers or speak to your local GP or practice nurse for their recommendations.

service and are able to be flexible and use our experience and contacts to build new and tailor made programs as well as to continue to develop new and improved services. We have a wealth of experience in helping many individuals and groups in designing and planning adventures, ranging from romantic breaks to personal challenges to school study programmes to extreme adventure expeditions, from low budget to no expense spared and we have lots of ideas, suggestions and experience to share with you. We are also delighted to say that many of our clients return again and again to travel with us and many of our new clients are through recommendations and word of mouth from happy and satisfied clients who have previously traveled with us.

Fair Pricing

We aim to provide you with the best service at fair and competitive prices and excellent value for money. As part of this, most of our trips are priced for different group sizes with the higher price applicable for smaller groups. With larger groups the price drops so that everyone benefits from a cheaper holiday. We offer 'land only' prices, for travellers who prefer to make their own international flight and transfer arrangements but are happy to arrange flights for you on request, using a variety of international carriers from regional and national airports. Our ATOL number is T7199 and we work with other ATOL holders to issue flight tickets. Additionally, we offer special discounts for groups of 10 or over, schools and group leaders. Contact us for more information.

Your Financial Protection

We understand how important it is that the money you spend on your holiday is securely protected. You may also have concerns about booking with an independent operator. To give you peace of mind and confidence in our service to you we have a number of ways in which we protect the money you pay for your holiday. The company is a full member of the Travel Trust Association (<http://www.traveltrust.co.uk>) membership number U3237, in compliance with the EC Directive on Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours. For flight bookings and issuing of tickets our ATOL number is T7199 and we work only with ATOL licence holders. For flight bookings the money you pay is protected under the ATOL holder's licence. For all other arrangements, your payment to us is held in a separate Trust Fund and only released to us on your return. In addition, we provide free to you, a 'Safe Seat Plan' insurance cover which means that in the unlikely case of your money not being held in the Trust Account or of our insolvency, you will be fully reimbursed for the loss of any monies paid to us, up to a limit of £11 000 per person. Therefore, for your peace of mind and confidence, all money you have paid to us is always 100% protected and available to pay for the services you have booked.

Insurance

All our clients are required to have appropriate travel insurance as a condition of booking. This year we are working with Snowcard for our higher elevation treks and tours. Snowcard provide excellent and very competitive insurance services for adventure and activity based travel. For no obligation quotes from Snowcard please follow the link on our website from the Useful Links, Make a Booking or Latest News pages where you can check quotes and cover details as well as issue travel insurance online. If you'd like to contact Snowcard directly they can be called on 01327 262805 or visit their website at www.snowcard.co.uk. If calling or emailing please mention you are a Himalayan Adventure Company client to obtain lower rates and quotes based on our trips which are very competitive and offer great

How to Book

Once you have chosen your trek or trip, contact our office to check availability and ask any questions you may have. We'll hold a provisional booking for 7 days. Please read our Terms and Conditions prior to making your booking. Then email, post or fax us your completed booking form (available in our brochure or downloaded from our website) along with the appropriate non refundable deposit of £250 per person and (if applicable) any payments for flight bookings. All flight fares are subject to change and availability until final confirmation and as they vary so much throughout the year, all flights must be paid in full at the time of confirmation. If you choose to phone us with your debit or credit card details, a signed and completed booking form will still be required for confirmation of booking. Bookings will only be confirmed once we receive a completed and signed booking form along with appropriate payment.

We will confirm your booking and email you a trip dossier which will include confirmation of your booking, receipt of payment/invoice, a day by day itinerary, visa and trekking permit instructions, vaccination and health information, a suggested first aid pack list, a suggested equipment and clothing list, a suggested reading list appropriate to your destination, a responsible travel briefing and other useful information relevant to your booking.

The final balance for your booking will be due 12 weeks (3 months) before departure. NO REMINDER WILL BE SENT. Your Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift will be mailed to you separately, usually a few weeks before your departure date. For clients outside the UK, a gift will be sent on payment of delivery costs only.

We wish you a wonderful Himalayan adventure.
