After time to get refreshed, rest and have lunch, enjoy a group welcome dinner later this evening at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. Visit Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. Returning to Kathmandu, this evening is free for you to rest, explore and enjoy the hotel and surrounds.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Paro

please note flights to Paro from Kathmandu currently operate on Thursday, Friday & Saturday only. Flight schedules are subject to change & a degree of flexibility is required should this happen. Hire bikes are provided from Kathmandu. Air excess baggage fees are not included and should be paid directly at the airport with max weight 15-20kg per bike. Please contact us for details

After breakfast this morning, it's time to check out of the hotel and transfer to the International airport for the scenic flight to Paro in Bhutan. Enjoy great views of Mt Everest, Kanchenjunga, Chomolhari, Tsrimgang and Jichu Drake during your flight. Arriving in Paro, we'll be met by our local Bhutanese representatives and assisted with the transfer and check in to our hotel in Paro. The remainder of today is free to relax and enjoy your peaceful surroundings and the cool fresh air of Bhutan.

Day 04: Paro

Paro is a small town situated in a beautiful and peaceful valley. We'll spend today exploring the highlights of the area including the ruined fortress of Drugyel Dzong and the local watch tower. Drugyel Dzong sits in a strategic position where it once defended the Paro valley from Tibetan invasion from the north in the early 17th century. On a clear day Mount Chomolhari (7320m) can be seen towering over the dzong. Further along the beautiful valley is the watch tower, known locally as Ta-Dzong. The tower was housed into the National Museum in the 1960s by the third King Jigme Dorji Wangchuck. We'll have plenty of time to stroll around and enjoy this charming town and surrounds today before returning to our hotel to relax for the remainder of the evening.

Day 05: Dochula Pass (3050m) to Khuruthang

Today we'll commence our cycling tour as we ride east from Paro, crossing the high Dochula pass and continuing on towards Khuruthang where we'll relax at our camp tonight.

Day 06: Punakha Dzong and Gangtey Gompa

This morning we'll visit nearby Punakha Dzong. It was built in the 17th century and served as the capital of Bhutan until the mid 1950s. Now it remains the winter residence of the monks and a number of sacred religious artifacts are kept here. From here we'll bike to Wangdiphodrang where we'll stop for lunch. This is the last town on the central highway before we enter central Bhutan and it's a typical small Bhutanese town with another interesting 17th dzong. After lunch we'll continue on to Gangtey Gompa, the only Nyingmapa monastery in western Bhutan. The beautiful glacial valley here is also home to the rare and protected Black Necked Cranes who migrate from the Tibetan plateau to escape the harsh winter. We'll camp here overnight.

Day 07: Norbuling and Trongsa (2200m)

This morning we'll visit the 16th century Gangtey Gompa. After this we'll ride down towards Norbuling and on towards Trongsa, crossing the high Pelela pass (3300m) en route. From the pass we'll have fine views of the surrounding area. Reaching Trongsa we'll camp here overnight. The Royal family has strong links with Trongsa and both King Ugyen Wangchuck and King Jigme Wangchuck ruled Bhutan from Trongsa Dzong, a massive fortress built on numerous levels of courtyards, temples and passageways into the hillside.

Day 08: Bumthang (2600m)

Today we'll leave Trongsa and start cycling towards Bumthang. We'll cross the high Yotala pass (3600m) before the ride down back Dumkhar, Chumi and on to Bumthang where we'll rest overnight.

Day 09: Bumthang Valley

Today we'll explore Bumthang on a guided sightseeing tour. Bumthang is a charming and beautiful valley and the name for the area where four smaller valleys meet. It's also the spiritual heartland of Bhutan and shrouded in religious legends and mysticism. We'll explore some of the medieval temples, monasteries and other highlights of Bumthang today. This evening is at leisure to relax.

Day 10: Ura and Sengor

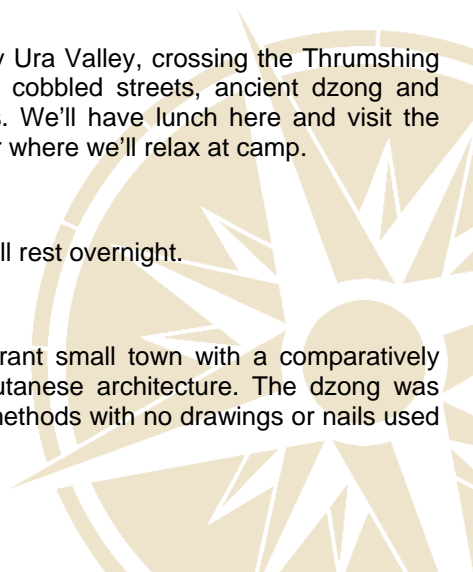

This morning we'll cycle to the east of Bumthang and into nearby Ura Valley, crossing the Thrumshing La (4050m) en route. Ura village has a medieval feel with its cobbled streets, ancient dzong and traditional farmhouses with yaks grazing in the nearby pastures. We'll have lunch here and visit the dzong before continuing our journey as we ride downhill to Sengor where we'll relax at camp.

Day 11: Kuru Zam, Mongar

Today we'll ride from Sengor to Kuru Zam near Mongar where we'll rest overnight.

Day 12: Mongar

This morning we begin with a short climb up to Mongar, a vibrant small town with a comparatively modern dzong which is a wonderful example of traditional Bhutanese architecture. The dzong was reconstructed by order of the Third King, with ancient traditional methods with no drawings or nails used in the construction. We'll rest here overnight.

Day 13: Trashigang

Today we head towards Trashigang. En route we'll ride over the Korila pass (2600m) before reaching Trashigang where we'll relax overnight. Trashigang is the largest district in Bhutan and a vibrant commercial centre, busier than other Bhutanese towns. It's used as a major market place by the Merak and Sakteng hill peoples, with their distinctive and unusual features and traditional dress, unlike customary Bhutanese clothing we'll see elsewhere. On the clifftop above we'll also see the local 17th dzong now used as a picturesque administrative centre.

Day 14: Trashigang

This morning we'll make a day excursion to visit Kanglung College. This is the only university in Bhutan. Returning to Trashigang we'll relax here overnight.

Day 15: Mongar

Today we'll start to make our return journey as we drive towards Mongar. We'll stay here overnight.

Day 16: Bumthang

We'll drive to the wonderful Bumthang area today. Bumthang is a charming and beautiful valley and the name for the area where four smaller valleys meet. It's also the spiritual heartland of Bhutan and shrouded in religious legends and mysticism. We'll explore some of the medieval temples, monasteries and other highlights of Bumthang today with plenty of time to explore and enjoy the views before relaxing this evening.

Day 17: Wangdiphodrang (1300m)

Our return journey continues today as we drive back to the small town of Wangdiphodrang where we'll rest and relax overnight. This is the last town on the highway before entering central Bhutan and it's a typical small Bhutanese town.

Day 18: Thimpu (2300m)

After breakfast today, we'll set out on the morning drive through the beautiful Bhutanese landscape to Thimpu, perhaps the least visited of all Himalayan capitals. This morning we'll take the scenic route and drive to the capital of Bhutan. Thimpu is a small and charming city situated in a river valley in the heart of the Himalayas with traditional low level Bhutanese buildings. On arrival we'll check in to our local guesthouse and relax.

Day 19: Thimpu

There's a lot to see in Thimpu so we'll spend today seeing the highlights. This morning we'll have the chance to visit an indigenous hospital where traditional methods are still practiced. We'll also visit a traditional painting school, the national library which is a treasure trove of priceless Buddhist manuscripts and the Royal Goldsmith's workshop. Before lunch we'll also take time to visit a local weaving centre and a centre for Bhutanese paper making. In the afternoon we'll visit the memorial chorten dedicated to the late King, 15th Century Changangkha Lhakhang as well as Drukthop Nunnery and Tashichhodzong, centre of government and religion in Bhutan. Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and its' a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Between October and November are some of the best times to visit Bhutan, particularly from late September to the end of November which are ideal for trekking and travel in general with warm days and clear skies. In spring the rhododendrons are wonderful as they colour the mountain sides throughout the Kingdom and the days are warm but nights are still cold. It can be extremely wet with the monsoon season in June to August.

It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

Complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift. In the past, gifts have included items such as trek bags and t-shirts and vary each season, and we aim to provide useful gifts which can be used and enjoyed during your trip with us and afterwards. For clients living outside the UK will provide a complimentary gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (eg spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$25 per person for a visa valid for up to 15 days stay in Nepal or US$40 for a visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry which you will also need as you will leave then re-enter Nepal after your time in Bhutan. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

Your visa will be stamped on arrival in Bhutan and cleared in advance. The (current) visa fee of US$20 is payable on arrival at Paro airport. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.
