TRIP PRICING 2009

To check pricing for your trip please check the code against the name of the trip in our brochure with the pricing details and matching code below. We offer tailor made and private group trips based on your preferred dates of travel within the best time to visit each region. For details and pricing for tailor made or solo trips please contact us for details on info@greathimal.com or by calling 0845 094 0273.

Our pricing is based on fair prices and the highest levels of service. Our guides and porters are insured, paid good and fair salaries well over the average and we ensure they have good conditions and are looked after and happy in their work. We provide complimentary use of down jackets and sleeping bags during days on trek and high altitude tours (excluding India/Sikkim) and include many extra services including complimentary welcome dinner for all trips starting from Kathmandu, snacks and tea coffee at no extra charge during days on trek, complimentary travel gifts and a personal & professional service using experienced local staff. We use the highest standards of accommodation from five star and five star deluxe hotels in Kathmandu and Delhi to the best mountain lodges to tented camps. We also use local staff on all our trips as we believe they have the best local knowledge to ensure your enjoyment and safety and by booking with us you are ensuring that local communities benefit from your visit. We promote responsible travel and care about and contribute to the environments & communities in which we live and work. Overall, we take time to listen carefully to your requirements & to answer your questions and we are passionate about travel, about the Himalaya and about ensuring you have a fantastic trip and experience when visiting the Himalaya. For any questions or queries please don't hesitate to contact us and we'll be happy to help. Welcome to the great Himalaya!
