Introduction:

This is one of the most varied and beautiful treks in the world and the best short trek in the magical timeless land of Ladakh, also often known as 'Little Tibet'. You'll trek into the Hemis National Park where the trail ventures high into the Himalaya, crossing two high mountain passes and circling the edge of the Indus Valley before descending into Zaskar. You'll travel through dramatic and varied terrain ranging from beautiful narrow valleys to vast wide open expanses and moonscapes, past picturesque traditional villages and hilltops dotted with ancient monasteries in an area where Tibetan Buddhism still flourishes. This is the land of the elusive Snow Leopard, Blue Sheep, Lammergier and Golden Eagle. As you trek to the upper end of the Markha Valley you'll be rewarded with spectacular views of jagged snow capped peaks before crossing the high Gongmarlu pass and descending to famous Hemis Monastery and the end point for this memorable trek.

Day 01: Arrive Delhi

Welcome to Delhi, a fascinating city amid the wonder of India. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange the transfer and check in to your hotel for a good night's rest.

Day 02: Delhi to Leh

After breakfast today we'll transfer to the domestic airport to connect to the flight for Leh. On arrival we'll be met and helped on our transfer and checkin at our local hotel. The remainder of today is free to rest, perhaps explore the local area and acclimatise.

Day 03: Likir and Alchi Monasteries

This morning we'll set out on a full day excursion to visit Likir and Alchi monasteries. Likir Monastery is just a few kilometres before Alchi. A scenic road passing through a landscape of rocky mountain and riverside brings us to the Gompa (monastery) which contains a number of enormous clay statues of the Buddha in different forms. Founded in the 12th century, Likir was the first royal monastery to be established in Ladakh under direct Tibetan influence. After time to explore Likir and to enjoy our packed lunch we'll continue on to visit Alchi Monastery, 66 km west of Leh. This monastery consists of six temples which contain a chorten, seated Buddhas and exquisite paintings. Over ten centuries old, profusely painted walls depict the events of the Buddha's life, lamas and musicians. The murals, dating from the 11th and 12th centuries pre date the Tibetan style of painting present in all the other gompas and some are reminiscent of the paintings of the far distant Ajanta caves and presumed to be almost the sole survivors (along with some in Phuktal Gompa in Zaskar and Tabo in Spiti) of the Buddhist style current in Kashmir during the first millennium AD. Later this evening we'll return to Leh to relax over dinner and the rest of the evening.

Day 04: Stok and the base of Stok La

This morning we'll drive to Stok and from here begin our trek to reach the foot of Stok La, around 3 hours in total. We'll cross through the village of Stok then follow the trail on the left bank of the river, as it comes in from the massif of Stok Kangri. After a couple of hours the trail leads away from the river on a gentle climb, through a small pass and up into a small valley where we'll relax at camp tonight, near a sheepfold.

Day 05: Stok La to Yurutse

After breakfast at camp we'll continue our trek to Yurutse, around 6 hours in total, stopping en route for lunch. From the valley sheepfold it's a long and steep ascent to the Stok La (4900m, around 3 hours). From the pass the descent is again steep before it levels out to reach Rumbak village. We'll pass through the village and cross the bridge over the river and up an escarpment which takes us up the right bank then along the left bank of the river where it's easy going until Yurutse. We'll camp here overnight.

Day 06: Yurutse to Skiu

Today's trek is around 6-7 hours. From Yurutse the path is good as it follows the mountainside before crossing a small valley and then zigzagging steeply up to a flat. From here we'll follow the trail along the mountainside again to reach the Ganda La (4900m) after around 3 hours trek. From the pass it's a long easy descent towards Shingo and then into the splendid gorges where we'll have a few easy river fords. After a 2 hour descent we'll enter the valley of Markha. From here, we'll take the trail left (east) for just a few hundred meters more to reach Skiu. We'll rest at camp here overnight.

Day 07: Skiu to Markha

After breakfast in camp we'll begin today's trek to reach Markha, around 7 hours with our usual stop en route for lunch. From Skiu it's a good path that follows the right bank of the Markha River through rich vegetation. We'll follow the bridge crossing onto the left bank and cross over a barren plain before heading back this time onto the right bank with another bridge crossing which brings us to Chaluk, with it's few houses. From Chaluk we'll head again towards the river, crossing over onto the left bank. After another crossing it's a short climb up to Markha and our beautiful campsite beyond the houses and near the river.

Day 08: Markha to Tchatchutse

After a good breakfast at camp we'll head to Tchatchutse today. The trek is around 6 hours, starting as we head up the main valley on the right bank of the river. The path is sometimes difficult in the riverbed. We'll continue on and pass the monastery at Humlung as we carry on along the right bank which brings us to Hankar. From here the path improves and just a short distance beyond Hankar we leave the broad valley on to the right hand side where the valley narrows and reaches higher. We'll take the bridge crossing onto the left bank of the river to reach the pastures of Tchatchutse where we'll camp tonight.

Day 09: Tchatchutse to Nimaling

Today our trek is around 3 hours to reach Nimaling. The path can be seen easily ahead of us, with several small inclines and the river stretching far to the left. The trail takes us past a small lake then across the pastures to Nimaling. This is one of the most beautiful high valleys in Ladakh at 4700m, dominated by the Kang Yaze (6400m). Several fairly difficult routes lead to the summit. Climbing the anticline (west) is not too difficult. We'll rest overnight at our camp.

Day 10: Nimaling to Shang

Today we'll cross the Markha, on our trek to reach Shang, around 8 hours in total today. It's a long climb along the mountainside before the path zigzags for a while up to the Kongmaru La (5100m, around 1 ½ hours). From the pass it's a steep descent. We'll pass a campsite then a stream before our long descent into the gorges. There are several easy ford crossings before we leave the gorges and continue our trek along the left bank of the river to Chukirmo. We'll continue on, as the path meanders along, sometimes on the riverbed and sometimes on the right and left banks before reaching Shang. Our campsite tonight is in a beautiful area of groves. There's also a small gumpa around one hour from the village for anyone wanting to explore locally.

Day 11: Shang to Hemis

This morning we'll head toward Hemis, around 3-4 hours. We'll start out by following the riverbed before joining a good footpath and up onto the left bank. From here we'll reach a dusty trail and past a small house and a series of chortens. We'll continue past Marsellang and follow the trail as it rises gently to reach Hemis where the Gompa and village are beautifully situated. We'll visit Hemis Monastery today before relaxing at our overnight camp. Hemis Monastery is the largest in Ladakh, established in 1672 by the then King. There are a number of shrines and temples of considerable interest here and the gompa itself stands out from the mountainside in traditional Tibetan style. This is also the home of Sakyamuni, a statue of Lord Buddha made of precious metals. The library houses a rare collection of valuable manuscripts and thangkas (paintings on cloth) including the world's largest created in 1630. In July a colourful festival is held here when the monks perform colourful traditional masked dances in honour of Guru Padmasambhava and lamas travel from afar, dressed in their traditional national costumes to join the celebrations.

Day 12: Hemis to Thiksey, Shey, Shankar and Leh

This morning we'll have breakfast at camp before the drive back to Leh. En route we'll stop to visit Thiksey, Shey and Shankar Gompas (monasteries). Around 17km from Leh and en route from Hemis Monastery, Thiksey Monastery provides a great panoramic view of the Indus Valley from its vantage point atop a hill. There are several important temples and wall paintings of Lord Buddha in this 800 year old monastery as well as many precious silver and gold statues. Close by is the summer palace of the old Raja of Leh. We'll also have a chance to visit Shey Monastery on our drive back to Leh. Here, is the largest copper statue of Lord Buddha, plated with gold and standing 7.5 m high and well worth seeing. Leaving Shey, we'll continue on to visit the small monastery at Shankar, which harbours a variety of very accomplished modern tantric murals and a thousand headed Avalokitesvara deity. The gompa is well lit so can also be visited in the evening. We'll head back to Leh where we can relax over dinner at our hotel with the rest of the evening free.

Day 13: Leh to Delhi

This morning we'll transfer to the local airport in time to connect to our flight back to Delhi. On arrival we'll transfer to our hotel and check in with the remainder of our day at leisure to relax at the hotel or perhaps do some last minute shopping nearby.

Day 14: Delhi & Departure

Today your time is free to relax until departure or to commence any additional optional trips or activities you may have booked. If departing, you'll be transferred to the International airport in time for your return flight home.

**Please note that from 01 March 2009 for the next 3 years a mandatory Airport Development Fee (ADF) will be levied on all domestic and international flights by the Delhi International Airport Limited (DIAL). ### Climate and Weather

Depending on where you want to go and what you want to do, it is possible to visit India throughout the year. The coolest weather is from November to mid March when there are cool fresh mornings and evenings with dry sunny days. Between April and June the weather can be very hot and dry.

Generally October to March are the best months to travel in most areas of India and Sikkim. In the far south January to September is a good time to visit. During the monsoon rainy season (June to September) is a good time to visit the deserts of Rajasthan and the northwestern Indian Himalayan regions. For Sikkim and northeastern areas March to August are good times to visit. For trekking, April to November is generally the best time although this depends on region and altitude. In this region the best time to trek is during the summertime, particularly from July to September.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics from March to October with something warmer for the evenings and warm clothing for winter. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

Complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift. In the past, gifts have included items such as trek bags and shirts and vary each season, and we aim to provide useful gifts which can be used and enjoyed during your trip with us and afterwards.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa are required for all trips and treks in India. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, please ensure that the information (eg spelling of your name) provided to us on your booking form matches exactly the details as shown in your passport.

All foreigners (adults and children) who plan to visit India are required to obtain a valid Visa in their home country before arrival to India. Tourists wishing to visit India are usually granted short-term tourist visas, effective from the date of issue and valid for 6 months or up to 1 year depending on the type of visa issued. These tourist visas are non-extendible and non-convertible.

If you are planning to visit restricted or protected areas you will need an additional special permit and should contact the VF Services Ltd or the High Commission of India, London to check whether the places you intend to travel to are categorised as restricted/protected areas. For example if you plan to visit Sikkim or Ladakh you will need to mention this when applying for your Visa to ensure you are issued with the appropriate permits for your travel.

No Visas are issued upon arrival in India – you must have a valid visa prior to arrival in India. If you are simply transiting in India and will not be going through immigration but immediately taking an onward flight you may not require a visa. Please check with us for information & guidance.

The procedure for applying for a visa has now changed with effect from June 2008 aimed at improving Visa services. The visa application process has now been outsourced to VF Services (UK) Limited to whom all visa applications must now be made. The main way to apply for your India visa is online where you will also be able to track the progress of your visa application. In addition to the online application form a number of Indian Visa Application Centres (IVACs) in London and Birmingham will provide visa processing services.

To apply for your India visa you will need to submit your visa application to either of the VF Services (UK) Ltd. offices in person or by post or use the main online process where you can apply and find more information at <http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk>. This link is also available from the Useful Links page of our website at www.thehimalayanadventurecompany.com or www.greathimal.com

The new system is very much based around an online application process and you are advised to complete the Indian visa application form and pay the fees online. After doing this you will then be able to make an appointment to drop your application and passport at the Visa Application Centre or send it by post and to plan your trip to the India Visa Application Centre and avoid unnecessary queues and delays. You will also still be able to walk into an India Visa Application Centre (IVAC) and wait in the queue to submit your application if you prefer.

Processing times vary from application to application at the sole discretion of the High Commission of India and its Consulates in the UK, and some applications may take longer than others to get processed. However general guidelines are that applications submitted in London and Birmingham will take a minimum 2 to 3 working days to be processed. Postal applications need approximately 15 working days to be processed. This does not include the period they are in transit to and from the High Commission or the Consulate General.

For more information or guidance please contact VF Services Ltd can be contacted via their website at <http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk/index.aspx> , by post at 142-148 Goswell Road, London EC1V 7DU, email info.inuk@vfshelpline.com, by telephone (answered between 0830hrs to 1600hrs) +44 207 8287369 or by fax on +44 207 8284979

We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. Once you have chosen your trek or trip, contact our office to check availability and ask any questions you may have. We'll hold a provisional booking for 7 days. Please read our Terms and Conditions prior to making your booking. Then email, post or fax us your completed booking form (available in our brochure or downloaded from our website) along with the appropriate non refundable deposit of £250 per person and (if applicable) any payments for flight bookings. All flight fares are subject to change and availability until final confirmation and as they vary so much throughout the year, all flights must be paid in full at the time of confirmation. If you choose to phone us with your debit or credit card details, a signed and completed booking form will still be required for confirmation of booking. Bookings will only be confirmed once we receive a completed and signed booking form along with appropriate payment.

We will confirm your booking and email you a trip dossier which will include confirmation of your booking, receipt of payment/invoice, a day by day itinerary, visa and trekking permit instructions, vaccination and health information, a suggested first aid pack list, a suggested equipment and clothing list, a suggested reading list appropriate to your destination, a responsible travel briefing and other useful information relevant to your booking.

The final balance for your booking will be due 12 weeks (3 months) before departure. NO REMINDER WILL BE SENT. Your Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift will be mailed to you separately, usually a few weeks before your departure date. For clients outside the UK, a gift will be sent on payment of delivery costs only.

We wish you a wonderful Himalayan adventure!
