Day 01: Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. The rest of your day is at leisure to rest and relax after your flight, perhaps take a walk around the local area or simply relax at your hotel. This evening we invite you to enjoy a complimentary welcome dinner at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today it's time for a relaxed and easy walking tour to Kathmandu's central Durbar Square including visits to an ancient palace, the living goddess Kumari temple, Hanuman Dhoka and Kastamandap temple. From here we'll continue on to Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. This evening we'll drive back to Kathmandu where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Besi-Sahar (760m)

Today we start our journey with a 173km bus ride (6hrs) with local vehicles along a road dominated by wild hairpin bends, to reach Besi-Sahar where we'll commence our trek. To start with most of the trail is fairly flat until just after Besi-Sahar when the track narrows and the valley becomes a deep river gorge. We'll relax here overnight at our tented camp or local guest house.

Day 04: Besi-Sahar to Bahundanda (1250m)

From Besi-Sahar the trail offers fine views of Hiunchuli and Peak 29 (Ngadi Chuli) as it climbs to reach Bulbule at 825 m. We'll continue along the trail first to Ngadi and then to Bahundanda at 1250 m. We'll rest for the night at Bahundanda.

Day 05: Bahundanda to Chamje

After breakfast this morning we'll leave Bahundanda and follow the trail as it drops steeply to Syange at 1070m. The path then crosses the Marshyangdi River on a suspension bridge before following the river to the stone village of Jagat. After another 45 minutes trek we will reach Chamje where we'll relax at our local guest house or tented camp.

Day 06: Chamje to Dharapani (1890m)

From Chamje we follow the trail along the Marshyangdi River and steadily uphill to reach Tal (1675m), a small village at the foot of a large waterfall. Now the trek enters the Manang District. We'll cross a wide, flat valley before climbing up a stone stairway to 1860m. The trail continues with several ups and downs before halting at Dharapani, our rest stop for the night.

Day 07: Dharapani to Chame (2685m)

This section of the trail is a bit rough and rocky climbing up to Tyanja (2360m) and then easier as we continue through pine and fir forest to reach Chame, the location of the headquarters of the Manang District. From here there are fine views of Annapurna II. We'll rest overnight at Chame.

Day 08: Chame to Pisang

Today the trail runs through deep forest in a steep and narrow valley, crossing the river on a long bridge at 3040m. Nearing the village of Pisang we'll have a view of the whole of the Manang Valley, a wide U-shaped valley between two huge snow peaks. We'll rest tonight at Pisang.

Day 09: Pisang to Manang

After breakfast today we'll follow the trail as it climbs a steep ridge that extends into the valley. At the top of this spur we'll have excellent views of the Manang Valley, with Tilicho Peak (7132m) at its head and a view back to Pisang peak, one of the trekking peaks. The trail then crosses the Marshyangdi again on a large wooden bridge near Mungji at 3360m before crossing over to Bryaga, a Tibetan style village consisting of about 200 houses stacked one atop the other, each with an open veranda. We'll rest tonight at Manang.

Day 10: Manang (rest day)

We'll spend today relaxing and acclimatizing in Manang where we'll be able to explore the local area or simply rest and enjoy the views. From the village of about 500 flat roofed houses we'll have excellent views of Annapurna I, Annapurna II and Gangapurna Lake.

Day 11: Manang to Yak Kharka

Today we begin an ascent of almost 2000m to reach the high pass Thorung La. From Manang village the trail crosses a stream before climbing to Tengri. We then continue to climb the Marshyangdi valley, passing the small village of Gunsang. After crossing a large stream that flows from Chulu West and Gundang, we'll follow the trail as it passes an ancient mani (prayer) wall in a pleasant meadow at around 4000m. Beyond this we'll reach Yak Kharka, also known as Koche where we'll rest tonight.

Day 12: Yak Kharka to Thorong Phedi

After breakfast today we'll continue our journey. After about an hour we'll reach Letdar (4250m). From here the trail continues to climb along the east bank of the Jorsang Khola, then descends and we'll cross the stream on a wooden bridge at 4310m. After making a short ascent on a good trail to a local teashop, the route then follows a narrow path across a high scree slope before descending to Thorong Phedi where we'll rest for the night.

Day 13: Thorong Phedi/High Camp to Muktinath (3800m)

Phedi means 'foot of the hill' and is a common name for any settlement at the bottom of a long climb. Our trail today becomes steepest immediately after leaving Thorong Phedi and it'll take us a good 4-6 hours to reach the high Thorung La pass with its traditional chorten and prayer flags at an elevation of around 5416m. The views from the trail and from the pass itself are of outstanding high Himalayan scenery. We'll be able to see to the south the entire Annapurna range, a heavily glaciated peak, the barren Kaligandaki valley far below to the west and the peak of Thorungtse (6482m) to the north. From the pass the trail descends to Muktinath where we'll relax tonight.

Day 14: Muktinath to Kagbeni (2810m)

From Muktinath our trail descends very quickly to the valley floor, through a dramatic, arid landscape all the way to Kagbeni. To reach Kagbeni it's necessary to travel on either side of the Kaligandaki River. The left fork of the trail continues up the river to the village which will be our rest stop for the night.

Day 15: Kagbeni to Marpha (2680m)

Following breakfast it'll be around 6 hours walking from Kagbeni before we reach Jomsom, a major village on the Kaligandaki trade route. From here we'll continue to Marpha for our overnight stop.

Day 16: Marpha to Ghasha (2120m)

Today our route continues as we follow the east bank across the bridge and head north, staying above the gravel riverbanks to reach Dhumpu. The trail climbs over a forested ridge, then heads down again and makes a long but easy traverse along gravel bars beside the riverbed. It then crosses the river back to the west side via a series of temporary bridges just before the small Thakali village of Kalopani at 2590m. Continuing on we'll rest overnight at nearby Ghasha.

Day 17: Ghasha to Tatopani (1190m)

Today we'll see a dramatic change in the vegetation, from dry arid desertland to pine and conifer forests while passing through and between the giants Dhaulagiri and Annapurna. At Kalopani the view of Annapurna is magnificent. It'll take us around 5 hours to reach Tatopani. 'Tato' means hot and 'pani' is water in Nepali and we'll be able to take a welcome dip in the hot springs here as well as rest for the night.

Day 18: Tatopani (rest day)

Today is a full day of rest and relaxation at Tatopani.

Day 19: Tatopani to Shikha (1980m)

After breakfast today we'll be walking for around 5 hours. We'll make our way across the Kaligandaki and start the steep climb up to the Magar village of Shikha where we'll rest overnight.

Day 20: Shikha to Ghorepani (2750m) and Poon Hill

We'll get an early morning start today with a 2 hour walk up Poon Hill (3210m) for a fantastic and memorable sunrise as we watch the light rise on over 30 snow capped peaks of the whole Annapurna range, a good reason for the early start. We'll continue on to Ghorepani where we'll rest overnight.

Day 21: Ghorepani to Tadapani

This area is one of the finest and most famous trekking areas of Nepal. The Annapurna range and Machhapuchre (Fishtail Mountain) dominate the mountain views with glimpses further east of Lamjung Himal and the Manaslu range. Our trail descends past huge boulders into the maze of tracks leading around Ghandruk. We'll stay at Tadapani tonight.

Day 22: Tadapani to Ghandruk (1940m) and Pokhara

We'll walk up to Nayapool and from here drive to Pokhara where we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of the evening at leisure.

Day 23: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast at the hotel we'll drive through the Nepalese countryside back to Kathmandu where you'll be able to check in to your hotel with the rest of the afternoon free to relax in the capital, do some local exploring or catch up on some last minute shopping.

There will also be some short day walks as part of your sightseeing, usually for a few hours, for example when visiting World Heritage sites in Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley.

Group Size

The maximum number of persons on this trip will be 16 and the minimum number 2 persons. By keeping group sizes small it means we can provide a more personal service to you.

The group will be accompanied by a local English speaking guide throughout the trip. It is usually possible to arrange single room accommodation but please contact our office to confirm this.

On camping style treks meals will be freshly prepared and provided by the camp chef and assistants who are part of the Sherpa crew. ### Land Only Option

Our trips are based on 'land only' as well as flight inclusive options to allow you the flexibility to choose to make your own arrangements for flights or perhaps to arrive a few days earlier or leave a few days later than the trip or to join the trip from anywhere in the world. If you choose the land only option we will provide full details of how and when to meet the rest of your group, details of your hotel and local contacts upon confirmation of your booking. All accommodation during your trip is included in the price although additional days before or after the start and end dates of your trip are not included. We are happy to book additional accommodation or optional activities, based on your requirements and budget, on request.

Please note that whilst at all times we aim to run our trip even with just a few persons, on some of the longer treks or trips, should the group size be less than our minimum operating level we may cancel the trip up to 6 weeks before departure. In the rare event that this happens, we will offer alternative dates or trips or refunds as appropriate and agreed with you. If you are arranging your own flights and accommodation prior to the start date of a group trip we recommend that you book fully flexible and refundable accommodation and transport if booking more than 6 weeks in advance, as should we need to cancel the trip compensation will not be paid for any arrangements that have been made independently.

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and its' a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a tshirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary travel gift, gifts vary each year, and previous gifts included trek bags and t shirts, subject to availability. For clients living outside the UK we will provide a free gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (e.g. spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Royal Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a multiple entry visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.
