Introduction:

Langtang has been described as one of the world's most beautiful valleys by Bill Tilman, a climbing partner of Eric Shipton. This 18 day trek takes the road less traveled to the Langtang-Gosainkunda region of Sherpa valleys close to the Tibetan border. The route offers the opportunity to explore traditional villages, climb small peaks and visit stunning glaciers at comfortable elevations. During your trek you'll visit holy Gosainkunda Lake of Hindu legend and cross the Laurebina La, a high mountain pass with stunning views into Tibet. You'll meet Hindu pilgrims and holy men and explore 400 year old Gompas. As you journey through bamboo forests you'll glimpse Langur monkeys and Red Pandas and travel past pretty villages and terraced fields, snow capped peaks and glaciers as you follow quiet wilderness trails and enjoy stunning panoramas of Ganesh Himal, the Annapurnas, Machhapuchre (Fishtail Peak) and Annapurna II on this excellent Himalayan journey.

Day 01: Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. After time to rest and get refreshed enjoy a welcome dinner at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. We'll begin with an easy walking tour of Durbar Square, a central social and religious hub of the city. Here we'll visit ancient palaces and temples including Hanuman Dhoka, Kastamandap temple and the temple of the living goddess Kumari. From here we'll continue to Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great spiral stupa itself. After enjoying the views over the city we'll drive to Patan, also known as the City of Fine Arts with its myriad of temples and stunning architecture. After exploring Patan we'll drive back to the hotel where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Syabru village (1420m)

After breakfast this morning we'll drive on a highway that twists and climbs over mountain ridges to the Trishuil valley and on to Syabru village. The journey will take 6-8 hours through picturesque landscapes. From Syabru we'll have magnificent views of Mt Ganesh Himal, Manaslu and Mt Kerung of Tibet. We'll relax tonight at a local teahouse or in our tented camp.

Day 04: Syabru village to Lama Hotel (2380m)

Today the trail descends for around two hours through the forest followed by a climb of about an hour to reach Bamboo village (1850m) where we'll stop for lunch. From here we'll climb through the bamboo jungle to reach the Lama Hotel where we'll rest overnight at our tented camp or in a local teahouse.

Day 05: Lama Hotel to Langtang (3480m)

This morning we'll follow the trail through rhododendron and pine forest for around three hours to reach Ghora Tabela where we'll stop for lunch. Another three hours on the scenic trail takes us to Langtang village where we'll relax for the evening.

Day 06: Langtang to Kyanjing Gompa (3920m)

After breakfast this morning we'll leave the village and trek for around four hours to visit Kyanjing Gompa. From here we'll also have beautiful views of Mt Ganchempo and Langtang Himal as we relax for the evening.

Day 07: Kyanjing Gompa (rest day)

Today is a full day of rest and relaxation at the Gompa. We'll be able to simply relax and enjoy the views or to explore the local area.

Day 08: Kyanjing Gompa to Lama Hotel

This morning we'll retrace our steps slightly as we head back from the Gompa through the forest to Lama Hotel where we'll rest for the night before continuing our journey tomorrow.

Day 09: Lama Hotel to Thulo Syabru

Today our trail leads again through pine and rhododendron forest where we may see the local wild boar as well as other animal and birdlife on the route to Thulo Syabru. En route we'll have marvellous views of Mt Ganesh Himal, so close it seems like it's beside us. We'll rest overnight at Thulo Syabru.

Day 10: Thulo Syabru to Chandan Bari (3330m)

We'll walk for around 5-6 hours today through dense forest of pine and rhododendron to reach Chandan Bari where we'll stay overnight. The trail from here is mostly uphill with typically Himalayan terrain remaining forested with open areas giving excellent views when looking back the way we have come.

Day 11: Chandan Bari to Gosainkunda Lake (4380m)

This morning we'll follow a wonderfully quiet and less trekked trail to reach holy Gosainkunda Lake. It's a steep climb today but with spectacular views and landscape. Gosainkunda is one of the highest lakes in the world and we'll be able to enjoy the evening and night nearby.

Day 12: Gosainkunda Lake (rest day)

This is a full day of rest, relaxation and acclimatization. The area around here is the homeland of the Tamangs and Bhotias and even a short time spent here provides an insight into their rural mountain lifestyles and the cultural contrasts between Hindu and Buddhist villages. We'll be able to simply relax or take a stroll around the lake and surrounding area.

Day 13: Gosainkunda to Tharepati (3600m)

From the lake area we start with a short climb to the Laurebina La pass (4610m) above the lake, followed by a steep downhill section on an elevated trail. After climbing over a ridge of the mountain we finally reach Tharepati on this long but again, spectacular day. We'll rest overnight at Tharepati.

Day 14: Tharepati to Tarkeghyang (2600m)

We begin today with a steep descent down a ravine where the vegetation changes first to large firs then to oak and rhododendron forest. Crossing over a stream via a suspension bridge, we follow the trail as it makes a short final climb to reach the prosperous Sherpa village of Melachigaon. The trail continues its descent to the Melamchi Khola (river). After crossing the bridge the trail begins to climb up the other side of the valley towards Tarkeghyang. It's a long climb to this picturesque village, situated on a shelf high above the river. It's the largest village in Helambu and the main destination for trekkers traveling in this region as well as a good place to take a rest and enjoy the views. We'll stay here overnight.

Day 15: Tarkeghyang to Sermathang

From Tarkeghyang the trail makes a sweep around the head of the wide valley between Parachin and the pretty village of Gangjwal at around 2500m. The trail then drops down from the edge of the ridge and continues at around the same altitude along the side of the ridge crossing over a number of streams and waterfalls. Finally we pass a Gompa before reaching the large village of Sermathang for our overnight stop.

Day 16: Sermathang to Melamchi Bazaar (870m)

Today we'll follow the trail along the ridge all the way down to Melamchi, a drop of around 1790m. After passing a large Gompa at the southern end of the village the trail undulates along the west side of the ridge, passing numerous chortens before dropping down to Kakani. From here the trail descends again to the small village of Dubochaur and continues to descend even more steeply across the ridge to the junction of the Indrawoti and Melamchi rivers. We'll cross the suspension bridge over the Melamchi River to reach Melamchi Bazaar. From here, transport, including buses, run reasonably frequently along the Helambu highway to Kathmandu where we'll return to this evening. Arriving in Kathmandu we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of the evening and night at leisure.

Day 17: Kathmandu

Today is a full day to rest, explore the local streets, to catch up with any last minute shopping or simply to relax with a coffee or beer and watch the world go by, Kathmandu style.

Day 18: Departure

Today is free to relax until departure or to commence any additional trips or activities you may have booked. If departing, you'll be transferred to the International Airport in time for your return flight home.

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and it's a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a tshirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned itineraries

camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary travel gift (subject to availability). The gifts vary each year and past gifts have included trek bags and t-shirts. We aim to make the gifts useful during this and other travel adventures. For clients living outside the UK will provide a free gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (e.g. spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the UK Department of Health leaflet Advice on Health for Travellers or speak to your local GP or practice nurse for their recommendations.
