Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. Visit Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. Explore the myriad temples and courtyards of Patan, also known as the City of Fine Arts. Later this afternoon we'll drive back to Kathmandu where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Pokhara and Beni (671m)

After an early breakfast today we'll transfer to the domestic airport to catch the short (20 minute) scenic flight to the lakeside resort town of Pokhara. From Pokhara it's a 4-5 hour drive through the countryside to reach Beni, the central administration site of the district. We'll camp here overnight.

Day 04: Beni to Babi Chaur (853m)

This morning we'll trek towards Babi Chaur, around a 5-6 hour walk following the trail as it ascends steeply at times and follows the bank of the Myagdi River. Babi Chaur is a small village where we'll relax at our camp tonight.

Day 05: Babi Chaur to Dharapani

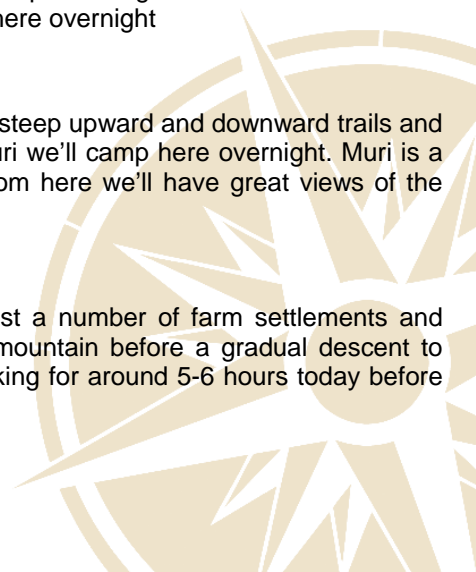

After breakfast today we'll walk for around 2-3 hours along the steep upward trail as it winds along the mountainside to reach Darbang where we'll stop for lunch. After lunch we'll cross the Myagdi River over the suspension bridge and along the trail for 3-4 hours to Dharapani village from where we'll have stunning views of the peaks of the Dhaulagiri Massif. We'll camp here overnight

Day 06: Dharapani to Muri

Our journey continues today with around a 5-6 hour walk through steep upward and downward trails and alongside farmland and a number of small villages. Reaching Muri we'll camp here overnight. Muri is a nice village and most of the villagers are of the Magar tribe. From here we'll have great views of the mountains

Day 07: Muri to Bagar

Today we'll walk through cultivated plains and paddy fields, past a number of farm settlements and through the forest as it winds steeply up and down along the mountain before a gradual descent to reach the village of Bagar, the last one on this trail. We'll be walking for around 5-6 hours today before we rest and relax overnight at our camp at Bagar.

Day 08: Bagar to Dobang (2500m)

Today we'll start with a steep but short climb uphill then a gradual descent. Above us we'll be able to see huge bees' nests hanging from the cliffs where local honey collectors climb down on ropes to collect the honey. We won't be able to see any peaks from the trail today but the landscape is beautiful throughout the 5-6 hour trek as we travel through the forest and more open grassland along the winding trail with many ascents and descents, some of them quite steep. After ascending through the forest we'll reach Dobang where we'll camp tonight.

Day 09: Dobang to Italian Base Camp (3200m)

This morning the trail takes us through dense jungle and along the riverbank for around 5-6 hours until we reach Italian Base Camp. We've a good chance of seeing monkeys along the trail as well as other local wildlife. The camp is named after a group of Italians heading towards base camp had to shelter from the bad weather in this spot. They were the first trekkers to pitch camp in that place and ever since it's been known as Italian Base Camp. We'll rest here overnight

Day 10: Italian Base Camp (rest day)

Today is a full day to rest and acclimatise. We'll be able to relax and enjoy camp life and the surrounding views or perhaps explore the local area.

Day 11: Italian Base Camp to Dhaulagiri Base Camp (4700m)

Most of our trek today will be through snowy trails before reaching Dhaulagiri Base Camp. On entering base camp we'll keep Dhaulagiri I on our right and Dhaulagiri 2 to our left. To our west are the peaks of Dhaulagiri II (7749m), III (7713m) and V (7616m). In front of us is the icefall descending from the north east col and above us is the north face of Dhaulagiri I. It'll take us around 6-7 hours to reach base camp and although the trail is difficult the scenic beauty of the surrounding Himalaya and Dhaulagiri Massif is breathtaking. We'll camp overnight at base camp.

Day 12: Italian Base Camp to French Col (5360m)

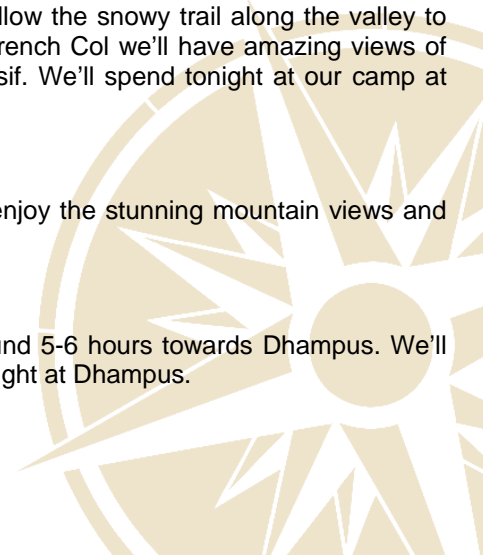

This morning we'll leave the glacier and cross the moraine to follow the snowy trail along the valley to reach the French Col. It's around a 5-6 hour trek today. From French Col we'll have amazing views of the Dhaulagiri Himal including the range of the Annapurna Massif. We'll spend tonight at our camp at French Col.

Day 13: French Col (rest day)

Today is a full day of rest and relaxation with plenty of time to enjoy the stunning mountain views and explore the surrounding area

Day 14: French Col to Dhampus

Today we'll leave French Col and follow the snowy trail for around 5-6 hours towards Dhampus. We'll cross Dhampus pass before descending again. We'll camp overnight at Dhampus.

Day 15: Dhampus to Tukuche

This morning it's a short 2 hour trek along a fairly level trail before the trail descends steeply for around 3-4 hours towards Tukuche village where we'll camp for the night. Tukuche is famous for its home made apple brandy and there may be a chance to try some as we relax tonight.

Day 16: Tukuche to Ghasa (2120m)

Today the landscape and vegetation changes dramatically as we follow the trail from dry arid desert areas through to pine and conifer forestlands as we travel from the Dhaulagiri region and into the Annapurna area, a journey of around 5-6 hours. Passing into the Annapurna region we'll be able to see magnificent views of the Annapurna range. We'll camp at Ghasa tonight.

Day 17: Ghasa to Tatopani (1158m)

The trail today gradually descends and meanders its way down and we'll enter a more lush area of valleys and fields. En route we'll pass by beautiful Rupse Chhahara waterfall as we approach Dana village with its surrounding orange groves. We'll stop here for lunch before continuing on to Tatopani where we'll relax at our camp. It'll be around a 5-6 hour trek again today.

Day 18: Tatopani to Ghorepani (2926m)

Today we'll take the steep and long trail up towards Ghorepani. We'll cross a number of bridges and ascend and descend the steep stone path before relaxing at our camp at Ghorepani where we'll be able to enjoy panoramic views of the Dhaulagiri Massif.

Day 19: Ghorepani to Pokhara via Birethanti

This morning we'll descend to Pokhara passing the pretty village of Birethanti en route. We'll probably be sharing the trail with mules loaded with goods in transit. After about 5 hours trek through farm villages and rice paddies past rivers and cascading waterfalls we'll reach Nayapool from where it's only a 2 hour drive to Pokhara. Tonight we'll rest at our deluxe hotel in Pokhara.

Day 20: Pokhara

Pokhara is the hip place to be and one of the best places to relax in Nepal as well as the start and end point for many treks and adventure activities. It's an enchanting town with a laid back atmosphere, nestled in a lush tranquil valley on the shores of Lake Phewa against a stunning backdrop of the Annapurna range and the dominating presence of Machhapuchhre. Today we'll take time to see some of the highlights of Pokhara on a relaxed half day sightseeing including visits to the nearby attractions of King Mahendra Cave and Davis Waterfalls. The remainder of day and evening is free to rest and relax and enjoy the area particularly around the lakeside.

Day 21: Pokhara to Kathmandu

Today we'll catch the morning flight back to Kathmandu, a scenic 20 minute journey. On arrival we'll check in to our hotel. We'll see a few more of the highlights of Kathmandu on a half day guided sightseeing tour. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and its' a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a tshirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a FREE complimentary travel gift (subject to availability). The gifts vary each year and past gifts have included trek bags and t-shirts. We aim to make the gifts useful during this and other travel adventures.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (e.g. spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the
