Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. ### Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. Visit Durbar Square at the heart of Old Kathmandu and an important cultural and spiritual centre, site of the ancient palace complex as well as the Kumari (Living Goddess) temple and surrounding temples. From here we'll continue on to Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering saddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. This evening we'll drive back to Kathmandu where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Jiri (2370m)

After breakfast this morning we'll drive by bus via the Araniko highway to Lamasangu. En route we'll pass the old Newar towns of Banepa and Dhulikhel from where we'll have an excellent panoramic view of the eastern Himalayas, including Ganesh Himal, Langtang Lirung and Dorjee Lakpa. The road descends to Panchkhal, then climbs over a ridge behind Dolalghat and follows the Sunkoshi north to Lamasangu. After passing several more traditional village we'll reach Jiri from where our trek begins. We'll relax tonight at a local teahouse or in our tented camp.

Day 04: Jiri to Bhandar (2150m)

Day 07: Jubesi

Today is a full rest day at Junbesi. The region around Junbesi is well worth exploring and our day spent here offers a variety of alternatives. Two hours' walk to the north of Junbesi is the village of Phugmochhe (3100m) where there is an interesting traditional Sherpa art centre. En-route to Phugmochhe a short diversion will allow a visit to Thubten Chhuling, a huge Tibetan Buddhist monastery about one and half hour's walk from Junbesi. Or simply relax at our guesthouse or tented camp.

Day 08: Jubesi to Nunthala

Below Junbesi the trail crosses the Junbesi Khola on a wooden bridge. Just beyond the bridge there is a trail junction. Our route to Khumbu follows the left-hand trail that leads uphill. We'll follow the trail north, descending through Salung. From the Dudhkoshi River the trail then ascends to Ringmo and the Trak Shidno Pass. There are a few shepherds' huts beside the trail but this part of the route is mostly hidden in dense forest. We'll cross several picturesque streams by wooden bridge just before reaching Nunthala (Manidingma) at 2320m where we'll rest for the night.

Day 09: Nunthala to Bupsadanda (2300m)

From Nunthala our descent continues to the Dudhkoshi River at 1480m and across to follow the other bank. Most of the trail today is well defined, although it sometimes meanders through terraced fields and the yards of local houses. It then descends steeply through forests to a Chautara (resting place) overlooking the river. We'll follow the river for a while through the surrounding forests then climb through terraces to reach the Rai village of Jubing (1667m). After a climb through the village and around a ridge we'll head for the prominent notch in the landscape just in front of us. From this notch contour we'll continue on to the village of Khari Khola (2004m) and push on up the steep hill to Bupsadanda where we'll rest tonight.

Day 10: Bupsadanda to Surke

Today the trail descends from Khari Khola village and crosses a stream of the same name via a suspension bridge near some water-driven mills at 2010m. After a steep climb to Bhupsa, or Bhumsing, (2300m) the trail continues to climb through a tributary valley filled with prickly leaved oak and rhododendron forest, where languor monkeys can occasionally be seen. We'll now descend (305m) and cross the next tributary after about a one hour trek. We'll then continue on the north side of the valley to reach Puiyan (2796m) for our overnight stay.

Day 11: Surke to Phakding

After breakfast today we'll follow the trail as it climbs for about an hour after Puiyan to the ridge at 2800m, followed by another ridge. The trail then descends to Sukhe (Buwa) at 2293m, on a tributary of the Dudhkoshi. The trail remains above the village circling it like an expressway. The village of Surkhe, at the bridge crossing the tributary below, is 2 hrs from Puiyan. The trail now leaves this tributary valley and heads more directly north towards Chaurikharka, another dispersed village. Before ascending to Chaurikharka (2713m) the main trail crosses a spectacular deep gorge with a high waterfall (2408m). We'll rest overnight at Phakding.

Day 12: Phakding to Namche (3446m)

This is a beautiful days walking through magnificent rhododendron, magnolia and fir forest for approximately 5 hours. Several villages along our route provide welcome teashops and the views of the peaks improve continuously until we reach Namche after a long pull up a ridge. Namche is the main Sherpa village and here we'll have a rest for the evening and enjoy an afternoon walking around the village.

Day 18: Lobuche to Gorakshep EBC (5151m)

The trail from Lobuche follows the western side of the broad Khumbu valley and ascends gently through meadows beside the glacial moraine. After rounding a bend in the trail we'll see the conical peak of Pumori come into view. On the lower slopes of this mountain a ridge extending to the south terminates in a small peak called Kala Pathar. At 5545m high this provides the best vantage point from which to view Mt. Everest. We can go to the Kala Pathar in the morning from Gorakshep. The trail makes a short descent on to the sandy, flat expanse of Gorakshep (5160m). All the way along we'll have clear views of the huge Khumbu Glacier and as we near base camp the contour of the famous and feared Khumbu Ice Fall will appear. We'll take time to explore base camp and reflect on our amazing achievement.

the trip or to join the trip from anywhere in the world. If you choose the land only option we will provide full details of how and when to meet the rest of your group, details of your hotel and local contacts upon confirmation of your booking. All accommodation during your trip is included in the price although additional days before or after the start and end dates of your trip are not included. ### Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and it's a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a tshirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary travel gift. Gifts vary each year and previous gifts have included trek bags and t-shirts, subject to availability. For bookings from outside the UK a complimentary gift will be sent on payment of post and packaging only.

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (eg spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Royal Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a visa valid for up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the UK Department of Health leaflet Advice on Health for Travellers or speak to your local GP or practice nurse for their recommendations.

If you choose to phone us with your debit or credit card details, a signed and completed booking form will still be required for confirmation of booking. Bookings will only be confirmed once we receive a completed and signed booking form along with appropriate payment.

We will confirm your booking and email you a trip dossier which will include confirmation of your booking, receipt of payment/invoice, a day by day itinerary, visa and trekking permit instructions, vaccination and health information, a suggested first aid pack list, a suggested equipment and clothing list, a suggested reading list appropriate to your destination, a responsible travel briefing and other useful information relevant to your booking.

The final balance for your booking will be due 12 weeks (3 months) before departure. NO REMINDER WILL BE SENT. Your Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift will be mailed to you separately, usually a few weeks before your departure date. For clients outside the UK, a gift will be sent on payment of delivery costs only.

We wish you a wonderful Himalayan adventure!
