Day 01: Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. After time to rest and get refreshed enjoy a welcome dinner at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. Visit Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. Explore the myriad temples and courtyards of Patan, also known as the City of Fine Arts and is a thriving centre of arts and handicrafts. This evening we'll drive back into central Kathmandu where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Phakding (2840m)

After breakfast this morning we'll catch the local flight from Kathmandu to Lukla where our trek starts. Initially the trail descends steadily along the banks of the Dudh Koshi River, passing picturesque traditional Sherpa villages and Mani (prayer) stones before reaching Phakding for our overnight stay. We'll relax tonight at a local teahouse or in our tented camp.

Day 04: Phakding to Namche Bazaar (3440m)

Today the trail ascends gradually towards Jorsalle, crossing suspension bridges over the Dudhkoshi River before arriving at the entrance gate to the national park. After crossing three more bridges the trail ascends through alpine and rhododendron forests where we should see local deer, birds and other wildlife as we follow the trail to Namche Bazaar.

Day 05: Namche Bazaar (rest day)

Today is a rest and acclimatization day at Namche Bazaar. We'll be able to explore the surrounding area or simply relax and explore Namche Bazaar where we'll be resting tonight.

Day 06: Namche Bazaar to Phortse Tanga (3680m)

From Namche we'll climb the hill to Khumjung and then descend west of the village down the broad valley leading to the Dudh Koshi. Here there's a choice of routes, the Yak trail which climbs gently, but traverses a long distance around the ridge, or the steep staircase-like trail made of rocks embedded in the narrow cleft of a large boulder. The two trails soon rejoin and continue towards a large chorten on the ridge top at 3973m. This ridge descends from Khumbila. From the ridge at Mong the trail descends in a series of steep switchbacks down a sandy slope to the Dudhkoshi. After crossing the bridge here we'll reach Phortse, a small Sherpa village where we'll rest and relax tonight.

☎ 0845 094 0273

Day 07: Phortse to Dole

The trail climbs steeply out of the valley through rhododendron forest, which gives way to fragrant stands of Juniper and large conifers at higher elevations. Our route today passes through the settlements of Tonga and Gyele (3960m) to Dole. The views of Khumbila and Tawachee (6542m) are tremendous throughout the day. We'll rest tonight at Dole.

Day 08: Dole to Machhermo (4470m)

From Dole the trail climbs via Lhabarma at 4220m to Luza at 4360m. The path is steep in most places as it climbs through scrub to Lhabarma. The track continues to climb along the side of the valley high above the river, crossing sandy spurs to reach Machhermo at 4410m. It was in Machhermo in 1974 that one of the first Yeti sightings was reported in Khumbu. There are good mountain views from Machhermo and we'll rest here for the night.

Day 09: Machhermo to Gokyo (4790m)

Beyond Machhermo the trail climbs a ridge for an excellent view both down the valley to Kantega and up towards Cho-Oyu (8153m). Beyond the ridge the valley widens as the trail passes through Pangram at 4390m. We descend to the river bank before beginning the steep climb up to the terminal moraine of the Ngozumpa glacier. Afterwards the trail levels out as it follows the valley past a second lake, known as Longponga at 4690m, then finally up a boulder-strewn path to reach Gokyo at 4,750m. We'll stay at Gokyo tonight.

Day 10: Gokyo (rest day)

Today is a rest and acclimatisation day spent relaxing at Gokyo or perhaps exploring the local area. We'll spend tonight in Gokyo again.

Day 11: Gokyo to Chola Pass – Dzongla (5420m)

From Gokyo the trail descends, passing the second lake. About halfway between the first and second lakes a trail leads across the moraine to the east and the Cho-La pass (Chhugyuma) at 5420m. The pass is not difficult but it is steep and involves a glacier traverse on the eastern side. It takes 3 days from Gokyo to Lobuche on this high altitude route. We'll spend tonight at Dzongla.

Day 12: Dzongla to Lobuche (4910m)

Today we'll continue along the moraine of the glacier, with fine views of Kalapathar and Pumori, before reaching Lobuche at 4910m for our evening stay. This is almost the last stop before the climb to Base Camp. It's important to take the time today to rest and acclimatize for the unforgettable ascent to Base Camp.

Day 13: Lobuche to Kalapathar and Gorakshep (5140m)

This trail gives a good view of Mt Pumori and there are beautiful views of the Everest group from Gorakshep and Kalapathar. Kalapathar lies on a ridge extending to the south and ending in the small peak. At 5545m high this provides the best vantage point from which to view Mt Everest.

Day 14: Gorakshep to Everest Base Camp to Lobuche (5316m)

Everest Base Camp is the main camp for mountaineers attempting to summit Everest, situated at an elevation of 5252m. Trekkers understandably feel great satisfaction in reaching here, a place not only of great history but also breathtakingly dramatic, perched at the foot of the infamous Khumbu icefalls. We'll take time to explore Base Camp and reflect on our achievement before heading back towards Lobuche to rest and relax after the exciting day.

Day 15: Lobuche to Dingboche (4410m)

Today we'll trek towards Dingboche, first retracing our steps to Duglha and then heading straight up the hill from the bridge to reach an upper trail. Staying high above the valley floor, we pass the yak pasture at Dusa to a chorten at the head of the Imja valley. We'll rest overnight at Dingboche, the only place in Khumbu where barley is grown.

Day 16: Dingboche to Tengboche (3860m)

Today we follow the trail from Dingboche as it descends the Imja Khola valley then crosses the Khumbu River. Following the trail downhill it's easy to make a detour and visit the upper part of Pangboche and the village gumpa before we continue to Tengboche for the night.

Day 17: Tengboche to Namche Bazaar (3446m)

After breakfast today our route descends to Phunki Thangka then ascends the ridge towards Namche Bazaar where we'll stay and rest for the evening.

Day 18: Namche Bazaar to Phakding (2840m)

It's a long, albeit scenic walk past Sherpa villages and mani (prayer) stones, from Namche to Lukla so we'll split the journey into two days with tonight spent in Phakding.

Day 19: Lukla to Kathmandu

Continuing on today we'll reach Lukla from where we'll catch our short flight (35 minutes) back to Kathmandu. Arriving in Kathmandu we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of the day at leisure to rest or explore the streets of Kathmandu, perhaps catch up on some last minute shopping or simply relax with a coffee or glass of wine and watch life go by, Kathmandu style.

Day 20: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll take a short drive to the City of Devotees (Bhaktapur) this morning. This traditional and traffic free town is the third major in the Valley. Your guided tour takes you to explore the medieval like squares, courtyards and temples of this vibrant town. After a stop for lunch at a restaurant in Bhaktapur it's time to drive back to Kathmandu. The rest of the afternoon is free for you to relax in the capital.

Day 21: Departure

Today is free to relax until departure or to commence any additional trips or activities you may have booked. If departing, you'll be transferred to the International Airport in time for your return flight home

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and it's a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a tshirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a Complimentary travel gift. Gift may vary each year and previous gifts have included trek bags and tshirts, gift subject to availability. For clients living outside the UK we will provide a free gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (eg spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a visa valid up to 30 days.. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the UK Department of Health leaflet Advice on Health for Travellers or speak to your local GP or practice nurse for their recommendations.
