Introduction:

Mustang is becoming a more popular trekking region in Nepal since the Home Ministry of Nepal announced the opening of restricted areas in October 1991. However this region still remains a highly restricted area with strict controls over issuing special entry permits in order to protect local traditions and the environment from outside influence. You'll travel through the region of the Kaligandaki, from the Tibetan border south to Kagbeni, generally referred to as 'Upper Mustang' to reach the walled city of Lo Manthang. Follow ancient trade routes and rocky trails and pass through treeless barren landscapes, past coloured cliffs and unique picturesque villages enjoying wonderful panoramic views of Nilgiri, Annapurna and Dhaulagiri on this memorable journey.

welcome dinner this evening at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Valley

After breakfast today take time to enjoy a day of relaxed sightseeing on a guided tour of some of the highlights of Kathmandu and the surrounding Valley. Visit Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. Join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering saddhus (holy men) at Pashupatinath. Pashupatinath is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as being one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Take time to walk around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. Explore the medieval style streets, temples and courtyards of Patan, also known as the City of Fine Arts. This evening we'll drive back to Kathmandu where we'll have a group briefing on what to expect when our trek begins tomorrow, a chance for you to ask any remaining questions and to meet your trek crew. The remainder of this evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at the hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Pokhara

Pokhara is the hip place to be and one of the best places to relax in Nepal and the starting point for many treks and adventure activities. It's an enchanting town of remarkable beauty and a laid back atmosphere, nestled in a lush tranquil valley on the shores of Lake Phewa against a stunning backdrop of the Annapurna range and the dominating presence of Machhapuchhare. After a late breakfast today we'll drive through the beautiful Nepalese countryside to reach Pokhara (around 4 hours). Arriving in Pokhara it's time to check in at our hotel with the rest of the day free to rest and relax and enjoy the area particularly around the lakeside.

Day 04: Pokhara to Jomsom to Kagbeni (2800m)

Today we'll take the short flight from Pokhara to Jomsom, the district capital of Mustang and the most interesting town in the area and the start point for our trek. We'll have spectacular views of Nilgiri, Dhaulagiri, Tukucho peak and Dhampus peak en route. From Jomsom we'll trek to Kagbeni, the entry point to the Upper Mustang and where we'll relax overnight in our tented camp.

Day 05: Kagbeni to Chele (3060m)

The trail today follows along the east bank of the Kaligandaki that climbs over numerous ridges as it heads north before it reaches Tangbe village. The town is a labyrinth of narrow alleys amongst whitewashed houses, fields of buckwheat, barley, wheat and apple orchards. Nilgiri peak, which dominates the southern skyline at Kagbeni, looms massively at the foot of the valley. Beyond Tangbe we reach Chhusang village and cross the river here. Continuing north and climbing up the trail, we'll reach a huge red mass of conglomerate that has fallen from the cliff above, forming a tunnel through which the Kaligandaki follows. Our trek now leaves the Kaligandaki valley and climbs steeply up a rocky gully to Chele at 3030m. Here the local culture changes from the Managi culture to that of the Tibetans of Lo from this point on. We'll rest in our tented camp tonight at Chele.

Day 06: Chele to Geling (3510m)

After breakfast today the climb continues through steep, treeless, waterless terrain, along the side of a spectacular steep canyon to a pass and rock cairn at 3540m. This is followed by a long gradual descent to some chortens on a ridge before descending further on a pleasant trail to Samar. The Annapurnas, still dominated by Nilgiri, are visible far to the south. From here we climb above Samar to a ridge and then descend into a large gorge and to another valley field before crossing a stream and climbing up to a ridge at 3800m. The route then climbs over yet another pass, follows a ridge and then descends to Shyangmochen. From here it's a gentle climb to a pass at 3770m and then a descent to Geling where we'll rest overnight.

Day 07: Geling to Charang (3620m)

From Geling the trail climbs gently up to the interesting pass of Nyi La and then descends below blue, grey and red cliffs across the valley to a steel bridge across the Tangmar Chu River. We then climb past what is perhaps the longest and most spectacular stretch of mani wall in Nepal before climbing over another pass at 3600m followed by a long gentle descent to Charang. The huge five storey white Dzong and red Gompa makes an interesting visit and chance to view the collections of statues and Thankas as well as numerous paintings of seated Buddhas. We'll rest tonight at Charang.

Day 08: Charang to Lo Manthang (3890m)

Today the trail descends for about 100m from Charang, crosses the Charang-Chu and then climbs steeply via a rocky trail to a cairn on a ridge and continues to climb. Finally, from a ridge at 3850m there is a view of the walled city of Lo. After a short descent we cross a stream before climbing up to the plateau of Lo Manthang.

Day 09 - 10: Lo Manthang

We'll spend the next few days exploring Lo Manthang and the surrounding area. There are four major attractions in Lo as well as several other places to visit. The tall Champa Lakhang 'good house', the red Thugchen Gompa, Chyodi Gompa and the entrance hall are the main attractions of the town. Another interesting place is the four storey building of the King Palace as well as the surrounding panoramic views of the Himalayas. Besides the town of Lo Manthang there are two other interesting nearby valleys well worth visiting. The western Tingkhar, site of the King's summer palace, Kimling and Phuwa as well as the Gompa of Nangyals, 'The Monastery of Victory' which is the newest and most active Gompa in Lo. The eastern valley contains Chosar, the site of a high school and Garphu and Nyphu Gompa. This is also the main trading route to Lhasa. We'll have plenty of time to explore the area, to relax and enjoy the views.

Day 11: Lo Manthang to Ghami (3490m) via Gekar

Today we follow the trail as it climbs steadily to a pass marked by a cairn offering a last glimpse of Lo Manthang. The trail contours past two small ridges and valleys before crossing a high ridge and descending southwards through two more valleys, meadows and across a stream. We then make a long rocky descent to Gekar. Lo Gekar Gompa is older than Samye Gompa in Tibet and is one of the oldest Gompas in Nepal. From here we cross a ridge after a little climbing and drop down steeply to Thamar village where the trail descends alongside the stone walls and fields of extensive villages before climbing to a ridge. It's a short descent from here to Ghami.

Day 12: Ghami to Samar (3160m)

From Ghami we'll climb to Nyi La and then descend to Samar via the outward route. We'll relax in our tented camp at Samar this evening.

Day 13: Samar to Kagbeni (2800m)

Today we'll continue our return trek to Kagbeni, our entry point for the Upper Mustang. We'll camp at Kagbeni tonight.

Day 14: Kagbeni to Jomsom (2750m)

Today we'll retrace our footsteps and follow the trail to reach Jomsom where we'll relax for the evening before our return flight to Pokhara tomorrow.

Day 15: Jomsom to Pokhara

We'll catch an early flight today to take us back to Pokhara. On arrival we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of the day at leisure.

Day 16: Pokhara to Kathmandu

Today we'll drive through the beautiful Nepalese countryside to the City of Devotees (Bhaktapur). This traditional and traffic free town is the third major in the Valley. Your guided tour takes you to explore the medieval like squares, courtyards and temples of this vibrant town. After a stop for lunch at a restaurant in Bhaktapur it's time to drive back to Kathmandu. Arriving in Kathmandu we'll check in to our hotel with the remainder of the day free to rest or explore the streets of Kathmandu, perhaps catch up on some last minute shopping or simply relax with a coffee or glass of wine and watch life go by, Kathmandu style.

Day 17: Departure

Today is free to relax until departure or to commence any additional trips or activities you may have booked. If departing, you'll be transferred to the International Airport in time for your return flight home.

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and it's a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for chilly evenings and at high altitude. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as itineraries

temperatures can change suddenly. To a large extent it depends where you plan to go and what you plan to do. For example during winter if you are on safari in the southern Terai region you'll need a t-shirt. At the same time if you're in Kathmandu you'll probably need a jacket as well. And if you're at Everest Base Camp you'll need to be very well wrapped up. During the monsoon you'll need a light rain jacket. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag as well as sunscreen, a hat and good sunglasses. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Clothing is easily and cheaply available in Kathmandu so it's rarely a problem if you forget to pack something. On fully provisioned camping style treks we provide twin share dome or A frame sleeping tents, kitchen tent, mess tent, toilet tent, tables, chairs, stools, lanterns/candles, thin sleeping mattresses, all crockery and cutlery and a fully equipped kitchen set up. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

FREE Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a Complimentary travel gift, the gifts vary each year and past gifts have included trek bags and t-shirts, gift subject to availability. We aim to make the gifts useful during this and other travel adventures. For clients living outside the UK we will provide a free gift on payment of post and packaging delivery only

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (e.g. spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Royal Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$40 for a visa valid up to 30 days. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.
