the second biggest downhill in the world, as you descend from the high arid plateau of Tibet into the lush valley of the Sun Kosi in Nepal.

Day 01: Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste and welcome to Nepal. You'll be met and assisted at the airport by our local representatives who will arrange your transfer and check in to your hotel. After time to get refreshed and have lunch, enjoy a relaxed and easy walking tour to Kathmandu's central Durbar Square site of the ancient palace complex, the living goddess Kumari temple, Hanuman Dhoka and Kastamandap temple. After your gentle walk enjoy a complimentary welcome dinner at a restaurant in the heart of Kathmandu, before turning in for a good night's rest at the hotel.

Day 02: Kathmandu and Nagarkot

After breakfast today we have a ride out to the peaceful hill station of Nagarkot on the rim of the Kathmandu Valley. Nagarkot is considered the best place in the Valley for great mountain views of the Himalayan range and the surrounding area is wonderful for some short walks and rides along quiet trails to explore the area. This is a chance to get to know the group and have a warm up ride whilst enjoying the sights and sounds of the Nepalese countryside and local culture. This evening we'll ride back to Kathmandu where the remainder of the evening is free for you to explore the surrounding area or simply relax at your hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu

Today our local representatives will be ensuring our Chinese visas are endorsed for us to travel into Tibet tomorrow. Meanwhile we'll be able to check out the bikes and equipment and enjoy a half day ride and sightseeing around Kathmandu. We'll visit some of the highlights including Swoyambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, with its fine views over Kathmandu and many interesting features as well as the great stupa itself. We can also join the devotees, pilgrims and wandering siddhus (holy men) at Pashupathinath. This is the most important Hindu temple in Nepal as well as one of the most important Shiva temples on the subcontinent, situated on the banks of the holy Bagmati River. We'll also explore the area around Bodhnath (Boudha) stupa, the largest in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. Boudha is also the centre of Tibetan culture in Nepal and a wonderfully vibrant, interesting community. This evening is free to relax and enjoy the surroundings and get a good night's rest ready for our trip into Tibet tomorrow.

Day 04: Kathmandu to Lhasa (3658m)

Today we head to the international airport to catch the short (one hour) flight to Lhasa, with wonderful panoramic Himalayan views en route. Arriving at Gongkar Airport in Tibet we'll be met by our local Tibetan representatives for the drive (2 hours) to Lhasa and check in at the hotel. After checking in we'll build up the bikes and check everything is ready for tomorrow. The rest of today is at leisure to relax and acclimatize.

Day 05: Lhasa

Today is for rest and acclimatization. We'll have the option of resting and relaxing at the hotel and surrounds or to do some local exploring on a half day sightseeing around Lhasa. If sightseeing we'll be able to explore the heart of this holy and forbidden city. We'll join the medieval bustle of pilgrims, worshippers, performers and traders in and around Jokhang Temple, the most revered religious structure in Tibet. We'll follow the pilgrimage circuit along the ancient streets of the old town around Barkhor Bazaar. We'll also explore Norbulinka Palace, in Tibetan meaning 'beautiful gardens' and the summer palace home for the 7th to the 14th Dalai Lama. At serene Sera Monastery we can enjoy watching the monks animatedly debating the Buddhist scriptures and see the wonderful collection of ancient murals and statues as well as scriptures written in gold powder, wonderful scroll paintings, tapestries and thangkas that can be seen throughout. This evening we'll relax and spend the night at our hotel in Lhasa.

Day 06: Lhasa

Today we'll explore the vast halls and chapels of impressive Potala Palace, former home of the Dalai Lamas and an awe inspiring landmark that dominates the skyline over Lhasa. We'll also visit holy Dreprung Monastery, once the largest monastery in the world and now the largest and richest monastery in Tibet, founded in 1416 and a place of study for many of the most learned lamas. The remainder of today is at leisure to explore the local area, to relax and acclimatize.

Day 07: Khamba La camp (3550m)

After breakfast today we'll ride to the bottom of the Khamba La pass. It's around a 6-7 hour ride today to cover 85km. This evening we'll rest and relax at our overnight camp.

Day 08: Khamba La (4794m) and Nagarze (4300m)

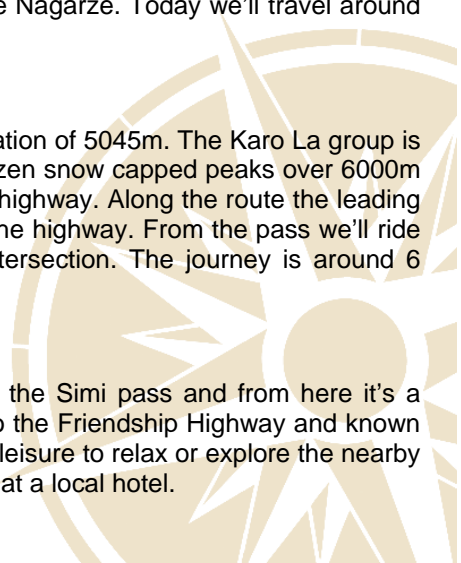

Today we'll bike over the Khamba La, at an altitude of 4794m and one of the high Himalayan passes we'll cross during our journey. It's about a 24km climb and from the pass we'll start to ride down to and around beautiful Lake Yamdrok-Tso. Yamdrok Lake is a wonderful turquoise blue lake, the third largest on the Tibetan Plateau. The lake is sacred to Tibetan Buddhists and lies like a beautiful giant sapphire set amidst the surrounding mountains, at an elevation of 4400m above sea level. After lunch we'll cycle down to our campsite at the other side of Yamdrok Lake just before Nagarze. Today we'll travel around 68km in total before resting overnight at our camp.

Day 09: Karo La (5045m)

Today we'll bike over the high Himalayan pass, Karo La, at an elevation of 5045m. The Karo La group is the highest group of peaks in central Tibet, a group of around a dozen snow capped peaks over 6000m which are accessible from the Karo pass on the Nakartse-Gyantse highway. Along the route the leading edge of 2 major glaciers reach to within a few hundred metres off the highway. From the pass we'll ride down to our camp (4610m) just before the Ralung Monastery intersection. The journey is around 6 hours today to cover 49km.

Day 10: Simi La (4330m) and Gyantse (3950m)

Today we'll ride for around 4-5 hours over 87km. We'll bike over the Simi pass and from here it's a pleasant gradual ride down to reach Gyantse, a small town close to the Friendship Highway and known for its giant stupa and fortress. The remainder of the afternoon is at leisure to relax or explore the nearby monasteries and stupas of this historical town. We'll relax overnight at a local hotel.

Day 11: Shigatse (3900m)

Today we'll ride down to Shigatse, Tibet's second largest city and seat of the Panchen Lama. It's a long ride today across vast stretches of flatland before we reach Shigatse in the province of Tsang. The road can be quite dusty so we've also got the option of driving today. It's around 7 hours and 90km to reach our local hotel and rest for the evening.

Day 12: Tso La camp (4000m)

It's another long ride today. Leaving Shigatse we'll follow the road before breaking for lunch beside the Ra Chu River. From here we'll cycle on to reach our camp just below the Tso pass. Today the paved road only stretches for around 45km. We'll cycle for around 6-7 hours today. The total distance we'll cover is around 112km or (if tired) 83km and the rest driving to reach camp.

Day 13: Tso La (4500m) to Gyatso La camp (4150m)

Today we'll bike over the high Tso pass and after this it's a good downhill ride for around 9km past Larze and on to our camp below another pass, the Gyatso La. We'll cover about 59km today, around 6-7 hours before relaxing at camp.

Day 14: Gyatso La (5220m) and Xegar (4350m)

Today we cross the highest pass, the Gyatso La at an altitude of 5220m. It's a challenging day and around a 23km climb up to the pass before the descent. We'll spend tonight at a local hotel in Xegar, an important stopping point as it's at the centre of this large and remote land and also because it's from here that the expeditions to Mt Everest and other peaks generally commence. Our journey today covers about 70km in total.

Day 15: Pang La and Tashi-Zhong and Pasoom (4350m)

Today we have either a 3 hour ride or drive uphill to cross the Pang La pass (5150m), the second highest pass on the Lhasa to Kathmandu route and a bit of a rocky uphill. From here we'll have fantastic views of Mount Everest, Makalu, Cho Oyu and the expanse of Tibet. From Pang La we'll bike downhill towards Tashi-Zhong village (about 50km) in the Rongbuk Valley and camp nearby at Pasoom. It's around a 5-6 hour day today and 62km journey.

Day 16: Rongbuk Monastery (5000m)

Day 20: Lalung La to Nyalam (3750m)

Today we bike over the Lalung La pass from where we'll have spectacular views of Gaurishankar, Dorje Lhakpa, Xishapangma and Langtang and we'll start to descend the biggest downhill in the world, taking us from the high Tibetan Plateau down to Nyalam, enjoying scenic panoramic views all the way. From the pass it's around 6 hours ride and 65km to Nyalam near where we'll camp tonight.

Day 21: Dolalghat and Dhulikhel (1500m)

accommodation prior to the start date of a group trip we recommend that you book fully flexible and refundable accommodation and transport if booking more than 6 weeks in advance, as should we need to cancel the trip compensation will not be paid for any arrangements that have been made independently.

Climate and Weather

Nepal has a monsoonal two season year with the dry season from October to May and the wet season (monsoon) from June to September. From end September/start October to end November is one of the best times to visit. The vegetation is lush after the rains of the monsoon and the air is clean and fresh. The next best time to visit is February to April at the end of the dry season. It can be a little dusty at this time but the weather is warm and pleasant and it's a great time to see many wildflowers in bloom. December and January are still good in terms of climate and visibility but can be chilly particularly at higher altitudes as well as in the evening in Kathmandu. May and early June can be very hot and uncomfortable and mid June to September can be cloudy with poor visibility and muddy trails although some treks (rainshadow treks) can still be undertaken even during the monsoon.

Between May and early November are some of the best times to visit Tibet. Before and after these times the temperatures can get very low, particularly at night and in Western Tibet. May and June are pleasant but you may encounter small short lived dust storms and a wind factor. Lhasa and Shigatse in particular have very mild weather between May and November although the months of July and August can be quite rainy.

Clothing and Equipment

Generally lightweight to medium weight clothing in natural fabrics is best with warm clothing a must for the evenings and winter. For travel around Lhasa and Shigatse a warm jacket or windbreaker should be fine. For visits to more remote areas including Everest Base Camp, a warm down jacket, hat and gloves are suitable. It's also useful to wear several layers of clothing as temperatures can change suddenly. We also suggest you take comfortable walking shoes and a small day pack or shoulder bag. In the mountains and at high altitude the weather can change rapidly so it is important to have appropriate clothing and equipment. Upon booking with us we will send you a suggested clothing and equipment list appropriate to your trip including details of any must have items or items that can be hired (if required).

Baggage Allowance

We request that you aim for a maximum weight of 15 to 20 kg for your main baggage including clothing and personal equipment. Many of our trips involve porters and/or local flights and 15kg is the maximum safe weight allowance for porters and permitted on local flights. International flights will usually permit up to 20kg maximum weight. If trekking, some additional baggage can usually be stored until you return from your trek. Remember you may also want to leave some weight allowance for any items you have bought during your trip! The Himalayan Adventure Company and our local partners are not responsible for excess baggage charges.

Complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company Travel Gift

On confirmation of booking we will provide a complimentary Himalayan Adventure Company travel gift. In the past, gifts have included items such as trek bags and t-shirts and vary each season, and we aim to provide useful gifts which can be used and enjoyed during your trip with us and afterwards

Passport and Visa Requirements

A full valid passport and a current visa is required for all trips and treks. Passports must have at least 6 months validity after the completion date of your trip. To secure your booking and avoid any additional charges, information (eg spelling of name) provided to us on your booking form must match exactly the details as shown in your passport.

To enter Nepal you will require a visa which can be obtained in advance from the Royal Nepalese Embassy in London (UK applications) or on arrival at the airport in Kathmandu for a fee of US$25. The visa process has changed in 2008 and all visas are now multiple entry. We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

To enter Tibet all foreign travellers are required to have a separate visa valid for Tibet as well as a Tibetan Tourist Visa. Permit and visa regulations for Tibet are subject to change on a yearly and sometimes monthly basis. Through our local representatives in Nepal we will make arrangements for your Tibetan visa and entry requirements, as issued by the Tibetan Tourism Authority under the Chinese authorities who control all visas and permits and travel to and within Tibet. The Chinese Authorities have recently changed the visa fees and processing time for travel to Tibet for 2010 which are now as follows.

VISA TYPE	Normal	Urgent	Top Urgent
US PASSPORT HOLDER	US$144 (approx GBP£89)	US$166 (approx GBP£103)	US$200(approx GBP£124)
OTHER NATIONALITY e.g. British passport holders	US$60 (approx GBP£37)	US$82 (approx GBP£51)	US$114(approx GBP£71)
Please note visa fee is charged in GBP at the equivalent rate to the US dollar fee valid at the time of booking

For all of the Tibet visa fees above we require a clear copy of each traveller's passport at least 10 days in advance to begin the application process. The hard copy of your passport must then be handed over after arrival in Kathmandu for the final stage of processing and visa stamp. If the passport hard is handed over to us on or before 7 working days ahead of departure time for Tibet the Normal Visa Fee will apply. If we receive your passport 5 days ahead of departure time the Urgent Visa Fees will apply and if it's 2 days ahead the Top Urgent Visa Fees will apply. These visa/permit fees are set by the Chinese authorities and are subject to change. As part of our service we arrange at no extra cost your Tibet visa/permit and collect the applicable visa fees on behalf of the Chinese authorities as required.

We will provide up to date information on visa requirements, costs and the application process on confirmation of your booking or on request.

You are responsible for ensuring you have a valid passport and visa prior to departure. Where appropriate, we will arrange any special permits or visas required to visit specific restricted areas included as part of the itinerary whilst you are in the country and may request information from you to allow us to do this.

Permits

To enter certain areas e.g. National Parks or other trekking or protected areas, you may require a permit. All our trip prices include the cost of relevant permits and entrance fees. Where this is not the case, for example you have booked a tailor made private trip, we will inform you of any required permit fees before you make a booking with us.

Health and Medical Information

It is your responsibility to ensure you are well and fit enough to join the trip. If you are unsure of this please contact our office to talk it through with one of our experienced staff members. We also recommend you speak to your GP if you are in any way unsure of your fitness level required to join the trip. We also suggest you have a thorough medical and dental check up before you travel. You may need specific vaccinations appropriate to the country or area you will visit. You must tell us if you have an existing medical condition or disability that might affect your holiday before you make a booking with us. If, in our reasonable opinion, your chosen holiday is not suitable for your medical condition, disability or level of fitness, we reserve the right to cancel the contract or to suggest more appropriate alternative options for you. A group medical kit will be carried on each trip or trek but we also recommend that individuals carry their own basic first aid kit and we will send a suggested list of items for this when you make a booking.

Please note that Tibet remains one of the most captivating but least developed part of the world and facilities for tourists can be quite basic and limited although are being continually improved. Travel in Tibet is an adventure involving high altitude, at times rough roads and can be strenuous. We will put every effort into making your journey as comfortable and enjoyable as possible but emphasize that travel in Tibet requires a willingness to accept flexibility and a spirit of adventure. If you are unsure that this type of travel is suitable for you please consider this carefully or speak to one of our office team before making a booking.

For useful health and general travel advice and information we suggest you visit the Foreign and Commonwealth Office website at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/knowbeforeyougo> and also obtain a copy of the UK Department of Health leaflet Advice on Health for Travellers or speak to your local GP or practice nurse for their recommendations.

Responsible Tourism

We believe that tourism should benefit local communities and that responsible travel does not mean a compromise in standards. We aim to promote responsible travel that respects and benefits local cultures, communities and environments and we support Tourism Concern, are a sponsor of the International Porter Protection Group and a friend of The Sahara Group. We donate 5% of profits to local charities and are involved in local development and voluntary work in the Himalayas, particularly in Nepal. For every booking made we also donate £10 to The Sahara Group (<http://www.saharagroup.org.np>) to help continue their wonderful work with street children with HIV/AIDS, women and children affected by human trafficking and poor rural communities. We employ local guides, office and support staff and ensure they have good facilities and fair wages and we work as a team to ensure you a wonderful adventure holiday.
